One of the greatest things about Davidson is its traditions, and one of the greatest traditions is that of having certain regulations which Freshmen must obey.

The function of the Court of Control is to maintain Freshman discipline through powers allotted to it in the Constitution which include "the hearing, investigation and dealing with charges brought by upperclassmen against Freshmen for improper conduct, violating regulations, or breaking college traditions." These sentences usually consist of confinement to the campus.

But disciplinary action is not the sole purpose of the Court. It also functions as an advisory body, and has an earnest desire to help the Freshmen become oriented to their new college life.
