

DAVIDSON 0—V. P. I. 16

MARSH, Guard

The Virginia Tech Gobblers took advantage of their own mistakes and scored a 16-0 victory over the Davidson Wildcats. After a try for a field goal missed, Davidson kicked back only to have its kick blocked and roll across the end zone for an automatic safety. This in turn set up another score. The Wildcats kicked and this punt was returned 65 yards by the Va. Tech safety man for the score. Toward the end of the first half Davidson threatened, but the threat was stopped.

Davidson's outstanding stars were Spencer and Shannon who constantly gained yardage but to no avail. Long kicking by Bethea and Miller kept the visitors backed up for most of the afternoon.

DAVIDSON 13—FURMAN 31

MILLER, Back

Davidson's Wildcats determined to rack up their first win by upsetting the favored Purples of Furman, drove to a smashing touchdown early in the first period, only to be overcome by the more powerful and magic Furman team.

Davey Spencer, engineering the march, mixed plunges and passes to perfection. The payoff came on a pass which Shannon took on the two and stepped across the line. Frederick converted and the Cats led 7-0. Although the Davidson team clicked beautifully for the remainder of the game, the Furman footballers had a little too much brawn and deception for the ever-fighting Cats.
