

Davidson 55 yards to the one-yard stripe. Frederick also kicked the extra point.

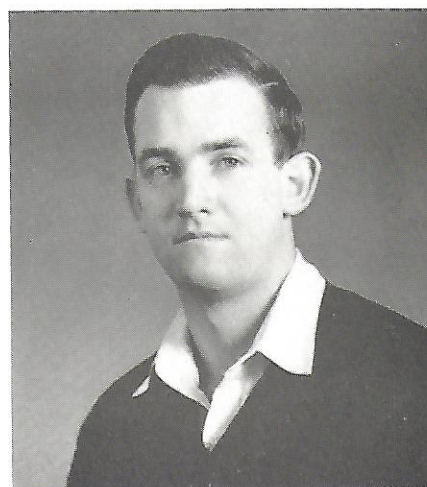

On the first play of the game from scrimmage Spencer gave an inkling of what was in store by storming through the line from his own 33 to the Washington and Lee 45, later scoring the first touchdown. Other outstanding stars of this game were Claude Hackney and Alf Taylor.

DAVIDSON 24—CITADEL 14

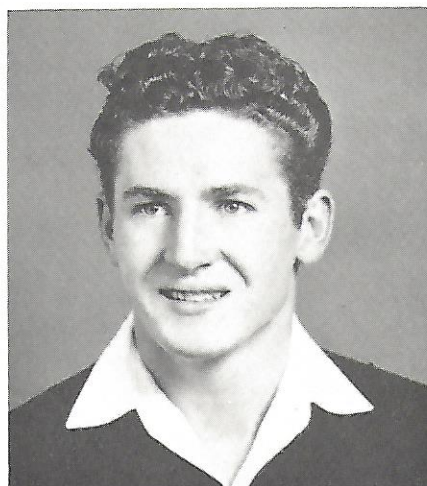

Davidson's fighting Wildcats closed the season and celebrated Turkey Day by downing the favored Citadel eleven 24-14. Little Dave Spencer ended his college career in a final blaze of glory, pitching all three of the touchdown passes and completing more than one-half the number thrown.

The Cats scored early in the first period starting a sustained drive from their own 35 featured mainly by Little Dave's passing and running. Dick O'Hair caught the touchdown pass to draw first blood and Frederick converted to put the Cats in the lead 7-0. Featuring the next two touchdowns was Claude Hackney, wingback who scored both touchdowns on passes from Spencer. Johnny Frederick kicked the extra points and also a field goal at a tricky angle from the 15-yard line.

Red Bethea's punting was up to its fine standard and he averaged 41 yards from scrimmage per boot.

SMITH, End

TAYLOR, Guard