

Midwinter

The Pan-Hellenic Council opened the dance season this year with Vince Courtney and his Duke Ambassadors for the Homecoming Dance Set. Our next Set was the biggest of the year — Mid-Winters — music furnished by Teddy Powell and his band. For the first time in the history of Davidson a swing concert was held in Chambers Auditorium. This venture met with very much success as the hall was almost packed with students and dates as well as faculty members. Pan-Hellenic Council President Pat Rudolph led the Friday night formal figure with Miss Eloise Ainsworth followed by the other members of the Council—Mason Wallace with Miss Frances Fleming, Ed Lucas escorting Miss Millie Brenizer, Julien McCall sponsoring with Miss Mandy Morgan, George Marsh marching with Miss Marilyn Reaves, Carlton Parsons escorting Miss Julia Guion, Walter
