

AT THE SIGMA HOUSE

The school year began with a successful pledge week for Delta. It was announced early in October that Kappa Sigma had won the fraternity scholarship cup for the year of 1940-41. They were also runners-up for that year in the close race for the athletic trophy. Twelve brothers and ten pledges were playing on the varsity and freshman elevens, but nevertheless the chapter showed up well in the fall interfraternity competition. Brother George Peters was elected Captain of the freshman football team. Brother Ed Hipp was Captain of the varsity wrestling team, while the varsity and freshman basketball teams chose Brothers Tom Yarborough and Tom Peters, respectively, as their captains. There were three Sigmas on each of these teams. Delta was also well represented on the baseball and track and tennis teams. Brothers Dick, Marsh, Yarborough, and Williams were Kappa Sig members of the Student Council for the year. Brother Marsh was elected to O. D. K. in the fall, and Brother Thompson was tapped by Phi Beta Kappa in the spring. First big social event for the year was the annual Homecoming Dance Set. Members of Delta chapter, their dates, and visiting alumni all enjoyed the week-end to the fullest. Probably the chief social event of the first semester was the Kappa Alpha-Kappa Sigma Ball, held at the Charlotte Country Club early in December, which has become an annual affair. The other Pan-Hellenic Council dances of the year, including Mid-Winters, Military-D Club Ball, and Spring Frolics, were all well supported by Kappa Sigma. The brothers had a number of girls up each time in spite of the increasing international tension. Kappa Sigma ended its social year with a dinner dance at the Charlotte Country Club on May 16th. This was attended and enjoyed by the entire chapter.
