

AT THE PI KAP HOUSE

Thirty sun-burned brothers of Epsilon returned to a newly decorated house in September, and commenced the rapid swing into rush week. . . Pledging sixteen men, with great hopes for the future of the fellows. . . Early football games with dates and parties. . . Homecoming's rapid arrival with McCall and Jane Saunders in the figure with Herring as alternate. . . Week-end trips to off-campus games. . . watching Woodward and Murray. . . Pledging of Professor Mebane and Mr. Magill. . . Founder's Day program with alumni from Charlotte. . . Parrigin elected President of the Junior Class. . . Pledges' Christmas party, with imitations of seniors being inducted into the Army. . . Johnny Campbell taking honors as Recruiting Sergeant. . . Christmas Holidays at last arrive and a joyous exit from the campus. . . January, 1942 and thirty-odd brothers drag onto the campus for a rest after Christmas' strain and stress. . . Pledges manage exams with a little brotherly encouragement. . . Larkin's election as chapter president for second semester. . . Chapter newspaper places in national contest. . . Mid-Winters with McCall and Mandy Morgan in the figure and Larkin as alternate. . . Frances Roebuck chosen chapter sponsor. . . Brother McArthur's intermission party. . . Banquet at Thacker's with arrival of Hipp family. . . Campbell's and Raymond's sojourns in the hospital. . . Initiation of new men and professors. . . Military and "D" Club dances with beautiful dates and plenty of dealing. . . Murray elected Editor of Annual for next year. . . Parrigin elected President of the Senior Class for next year. . . Chapter purchases new Victrola. . . Yearly stag banquet revived after several years at the Red Fez Club—all functions well. . . Spring holidays finally arrive with destinations unknown. . . Spring Frolics with a battle of bands, a banquet and plenty of beautiful gals. . . Annual fraternity dance at the Hotel Charlotte. . . varied off-campus trips for all the brothers. . . and eight rising soldiers coming up for graduation: Geddie Herring, Tad Larkin, Julien McCall, Lonnie Miller, Mac Morris, W. C. Plunkett, Blanton Williamson, and Sam Woodward.