

AT THE S. P. E. HOUSE

September saw twenty-four brothers in Sigma Phi Epsilon back for the opening of school. A very commendable pledge group rewarded the chapter's efforts during a rather hectic rush-week. Twenty-two men from six states were pledged: Blevins, Betts, Rodgers, Powell, Whiddon, Isley, Clark, Robinson, Hay, Maness, Sellers, Dalton, Ivie, Shore, White, Behrman, Baucom, Miller, McLauchlin, Horschel, Winchester, and Smith. With rushing over, the chapter settled down to a myriad of various activities... freshman study halls... football and soccer... letters for Ed Hay, Henderson, and Sleet... numerals to Sam Hay, Fred Betts, and Henry Shore... Homecoming decorations and the old face... Pledgemaster Morton with his faithful charges every Wednesday night... the fall banquet and dance... faculty get-togethers... fourth place in intramural football... meals at Mrs. Pharr's... Herb Morton and Flop Shaw pledged... exams... empty seats... initiation... R. O. T. C.—Captain Hay, Lieut. Bivins, Sergeants Morton, Fulcher, and Legerton... Midwinters... Pan-Hellenic Councilman Rod

Turner... undefeated in intramural basketball... Phi Beta bids Turner, Henderson... snowball fights on Mrs. Pharr's porch... the cohort of Queens addicts... the faculty steak-fry... Scabbard and Blade taps Hay and Morton... Henderson, Isley, Blevins, Powell, Whiddon, and Whitley make the band trip... Chapter visited by Uncle Billy Phillips and Bill Heine-man... Military and "D" Club dance set... Miller breaks interfraternity $\frac{3}{4}$ mile track record... Rodgers and Morton on debating team... Ed Hay, Red and Black Masquers president... Daffin, Davis, and Major out for baseball... Loy out for track... new officers... installation banquet... Clarence Legerton, the movie mogul... Joe and Eddie, Bill and Mary Steele, Sid and Betsy, Rod and Peggy, Jack and Dot, Fred and Mary Deane... Whitley and his boogie-woogie... Knox, Myers, Little Knox, Brown, and Henderson off to Charlotte every Saturday... interfraternity sing... volleyball... long spring evenings... softball... exams... graduation... off to war.
