

Boys Basketball

Coach Eddie Patrick, despite a tough slate for the season, worked hard to achieve team success. By the time the season was to begin, the boys were coming together smoothly. Speed, leaping abilities, and teamwork began to dominate the scene of the Raiders. They proved themselves game after game. With more ups than downs, the team stands showing an impressive season and outlook for the future. Of course, the top is the only spot for rest for them, too!!
