

Dear Holly,

Even though we fight and don't agree on the same things sometimes, I am very proud to be your only brother. You are a great sister and a wonderful friend.

Love you,
Jason

CONGRATULATIONS SUMMER LYN SMITH

Friends

Two attached at the hip; however, they were really bonded by their pasts and everything they had in common — a relationship more like that of soulmates or close sisters. They had crazy times, times always memorable, even if they might not seem interesting to anyone else. There was always understanding for each other's problems and a laughter in their heart that no one could interpret. Together, Through the worst times, with each other — there was always a light at the end of the dark scary paths.

Love,
Nicole Muckenfuss
