

We have been blessed by God for having you as our son. You have made us proud as you have grown and matured into a handsome young man. As you finish high school, you will face many new challenges in the future. As always, we will be here for you in everything you do. Our wish for you is much love and happiness.

We love you so very much.

Dad, Mom, Jill

