

From the very moment God gave you to us, we knew you were SPECIAL. Your first beauty contest, you were chosen, "The Most Beautiful Baby" on MIDDAY, Channel 5, and, of course, when you took those first steps for Aunt Joyce and Uncle Sammy before you were one, we had no doubts. At three, you could recite, "'Twas the night before Christmas." Now, as you begin your journey towards Clemson and on to law school, we all want you to know how much we love you and wish you all the happiness life can bring. Congratulations, Carroll Elaine. We are proud of you.

Love,
