

Angie,

We always knew this day would come but it has come much too quickly. As you venture out and spread your wings — always remember how much we love you and how blessed we are to have such a wonderful daughter as you. We are very proud of you and know that you can accomplish anything as long as you have faith in yourself and God. You will always be my only daughter and best friend.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Angie,
Congratulations!
Now I get the car.

Love,
Kevin
