

Richley,

The time has come and I wonder where the years have gone. I look at you and thank God for the precious blessing he gave me.

You have touched our hearts and lives in many wonderful ways. We have loved every minute. You have been the greatest joy and happiness in my life.

Remember: Follow your heart and all of your dreams will come true. You'll always be my little Red Haired Girl in Pigtails.

Love Forever,
Momma & Harry

P.S. Clean your room, Ha!
