

THE CITADEL
Bulldogs

Jess,

This year has been very trying for us. We've went through more than any couple should, but here we are closer than we've ever been. I'm so proud of who you've become. Keep your head high and don't be ashamed to show those beautiful eyes and great smile. It always gets better. Thanks for all of your support. I love you so much. Congratulations! and try not to be too "smelly" in the years ahead.

Love Always,
Kris
