

Jennifer,

Throughout your endeavors, you will need a little bit of luck, some skill, and great amounts of love and support. We can help you practice for skill, we will offer you love and support, but the luck is on you.

We wish you the best in all that you do. Remember, we will always be right here for you. You have already done so much in your life. The rest is yours to decide. Always remember that you must be a good friend to have friends, so be ready and willing to lend an ear, a hand, or maybe some time.

Love,

Mark and Wendi Lynn

I am proud to call you my friend. You are very special to me. By the way, I am holding a spot close to me just for you. Think about it.
