

This school year has not only brought me the honor of being a senior, but also being the editor of Dorchester Academy's 2000 annual. It was a labor of love to put together the pictures and captions that fill this annual. Meeting deadlines, getting the right pictures, and all correct information was a lot of work that I had to do. I could never have done this all by my self. With the aid of Jennifer, Elizabeth, "Miss" Karen, Carroll, Megan, the annual class, and many others this annual was made possible. I thank you all for your believing in me and helping me make this annual a reality. Your guidance, your helping hands, your patience, and input were all treasures to me. You have all done a great job with a heart and spirit I admire. You have taught me the importance of staying on task and getting my job done early. Each of you has a special place in my heart. God has blessed me with people like you in my life. Dorchester Academy, I hope you enjoy this annual that we have put together for you. May God take care of you all and guide you through the path known to us as life.

Being Business Manager of the 2000 Challenger has been one of the greatest experiences of my life. Suddenly, when this process began in September, selling ads, cropping pictures, and collecting money was all I could think about. This yearbook took over my life for several months and taught me many valuable lessons about publishing and life. The lasting impressions the annual has left on me are wonderful, and I hope they will be for you also. Thank you, Mrs. Karen, for all of your guidance. You always had faith in me that I would complete my task. Christine and Jennifer, I have enjoyed working with you. I am grateful for your support. To the "ad sellers," thank you. This annual wouldn't be possible without your hard work. To the Class of 2000, it's been a blast! Best of luck to you all, and farewell, Dorchester Academy

I love you all,

For the past four years, my dream was to be the editor of the Challenger my senior year. I was photographer last year, and trained with editors to better prepare myself. However, nothing could have prepared me well enough for the endeavor that I undertook this year. Being editor of this year's annual has been one of the best experiences of my life, but A LOT of hard work came with it. I realized that I could not do it by myself and I never would have finished it without Christine, Lauren, Jeremy, Michael, Carroll, EJ, and "Miss" Karen. Thank you all for sticking with me and having the patience to make it through. It was a team effort with everybody equally important. "Miss" Karen, thank you for giving me the opportunity to do this, and the chance to learn some valuable life lessons. Sincerely,
