

Michelle, very early on July 5, 1983, God blessed our lives with a very special little girl...YOU! We knew from the very second that we first saw you, and noticed that little twinkle in your eyes that you were a joy and a blessing sent straight from Heaven into our home and into our hearts. We were full of joy as we watched you change from a precious, independent little baby into a darling, and charming little girl. Then it seemed as if it happened over night; our charming little girl had gone from pigtails and braces and had become a very beautiful and dependent young lady with an illuminating smile. Within these extremely short years, you have obtained many goals for yourself, set a wonderful example for so many and have been an encouragement to everyone who knows you. Now it is time for you to achieve new goals while still being an example and encouragement to others as you venture into a new era in your life: Graduation and College. We are disheartened because your childhood has gone by so rapidly, but we are overjoyed as we see the wonderful young lady that you have become. Time changes many things, Michelle, but some things will never change. Even though you are entering adulthood, you will always be our little girl whose twinkling eyes fill us with joy, whose tender smile warms our hearts, and who continues to bless our lives. Always remember to keep God first and you will accomplish any goal you set!

We love you very much and are very, very proud of you!
 Congratulations, Chelle!
 Momma and Daddy

Chelle,
 Thanks for being a great sister,
 Love, Dut

Cungradulasions!
 Remember to always let God be your guide.
 You are awesome!
 Love your big bubba-Kevin

We are proud of you,
 Love, Me-Me and Popine

I am proud of you,
 Love ya, Grandmomma

