

Not all of us can triumph or rise to heights of fame, but he who makes a sacrifice, makes his task outstanding and brings reality to dreams. For when we give ourselves away in sacrifice and Love, we are laying up rich treasures, unimportant as they may seem.

*Make every moment count... this is the time of your life.
Welcome every stumbling block and every thorn, for each is a steppingstone to a fuller life.*

Soar above life's trials, grow in strength and grace, spread your wings and fly with the eagles, feel that you are worthy, create your own oasis, know that love can transform the most common place, love is the language every heart speaks. God is love, let him light your paths, be in his keeping and always hold his hand.

While you travel new paths and a new life unfolds, always carry our love in your pocket, wear a smile upon your face and a song in your heart.

May all your dreams come true- Ours did with YOU!

Our love is with you always, Momma and Daddy
