

What a clear memory of that little girl with the bright smile and bouncing ponytails who left for her first day of kindergarten 13 years ago! That strong and determined spirit hasn't faded. Keep going toward your goal and there's nothing you can't accomplish!

We love that beautiful smile that lights up a room.

Never stop learning and never stop living by those values we've taught you at home. God has blessed us with a beautiful daughter, inside and out, and we're so very proud of you.

Jennifer, remember the good things we've given you, but most important of all, don't ever let go of your faith in God and Jesus as your Savior. As much as Mom and Dad want the best for you, God wants it even more.

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster; to give you a future and a hope." Jeremiah 29:11

Mom & Dad

Take Time!

Take time to be friendly
It is the road to happiness.

Take time to dream
It is hitching your wagon to a star.

Take time to love and be loved.

It is the privilege of the gods.

Take time to look around.
It is too short a day to be selfish.

Take time to laugh
It is the music of the soul.

From an old English Prayer

Love and God Bless You Always,

Grandma
