

Becky
You are our rosebud handpicked by God above, to fill our lives with fragrance as a symbol of His love.

We see its petals open and watch our dreams come true, for to us, Heaven made no other rose more beautiful than you.

Time stands still within our hearts where yesterday must rest. We know our little rosebud gave us life's very best.

We encourage you to look within and find out what you can be as well as what and who you already are. Make that which endures from your hand and spirit quality work that will gleam and shine forever.

“Who you become is who you choose to become daily.”

Love Forever,
Moma and Daddy
