

Callie,

I am so proud of you. I can't believe this time your life is here. Graduation! Seems like just yesterday you were graduating from "Miss" Jane Martin's kindergarten class. Remember crying on stage because you didn't want to leave her and go to first grade? Well, now I know how you felt. In a few months you will be leaving home and starting a new chapter in your life. Make it one that everyone will want to read. You are funny, curious, wise, responsible, loving, and you have the biggest heart in the world! You ARE truly my "BEST FRIEND." I have always enjoyed our times together. Sometimes it wasn't easy (because we are so much alike), but everything always seem to work out. I am so proud of the mature young woman you have become and all that you have accomplished. Always remember your family loves you. Hold your head high, reach for the stars, and don't ever let anyone tell you that your dreams can't come true. May God Bless!

*Love always,
Momma and Mr. Michael*

*Congratulations Callie!
I can't believe you are going to college.
Good Luck There!
Remember to come visit me. I love you.*

*Love,
McKinley*
