

On 2-10-85 God gave us a beautiful baby girl to have and cherish for the rest of our lives. Now you've grown into a beautiful young lady who we still love and cherish dearly. Know that God gave you to us to love and cherish, but to also guide and protect you through life's journey. So no matter what you do or where you go with your life we will always be beside you to love, guide, and protect you through your ups and downs of life.

We love you very much!

Love,

*Mom, Dad, Katrina, Sabrina, and Aron
