

Casey,
I can't believe how fast the years have gone by. I want you to know how proud I am of who you have become. Graduation is a time of new beginnings. I know things will change, but never the love I have for you. You and Kimberly are my life.

I know you will do great in the goals that you set. You have a good heart, don't ever change that for anything. While writing this note to you I started thinking about all the times we spent at grandma and granddaddy's house. You use to cry when I would tell you it was time to go home. You were so close to your granddaddy. I wish he were here to see you today. I know he would be proud of you. We all loved seeing you dance. You were our entertainment for the whole family. Casey you really have a talent for music. I hope you will continue that in your life in some way. I also want to tell you how great you are with Kimberly. I am so happy to see how close you two have become. She really looks up to you. You have shown her so many things. For that I thank you. Remember what I have always told you. Make yourself happy first. Work hard for what you want and never give up. I will always be here for you. You are not only a daughter to me but my friend. I love you more than the stars, the sky, and the world.

Mom

Casey,
I will miss you next year. Thank you for being the best sister anyone could ever ask for. You are not only my sister but also my best friend. I love you!!!

Kimberly
