

On May 10, 1985, God placed into my care, a second baby boy. As time progressed, we realized we had been given a very independent and determined little boy. Time has passed so quickly. Here you are a sweet, gentle, loving and determined young man, getting ready to graduate and move forward with your life. You have set goals in your life and will not stop until you have reached each one. We are so very proud of all you have accomplished thus far. Keep your charming but determined personality and cute smile. We wish for you the best life has to offer.....because you deserve the best.....LOVE YA!!!

*Love Always,
Mom, Dunk, Chris, and Russell*
