

For Our Special Daughter: A Few Words from the Heart

Ashley,

In your happiest and most exciting moments, our hearts will celebrate and smile beside you. In your lowest lows, our love will be there to keep you warm, to give you strength, and to remind you that your sunshine is sure to come again.

In your moments of accomplishment, we will be filled so full of pride that we may have a hard time keeping the feeling inside.

In your moments of disappointment, we will be a shoulder to cry on, and a hand to hold, and a love that will gently enfold you until everything's okay.

In your gray days, we will help you search, one by one, for the colors of the rainbow.

In your bright and shining hours, we will be smiling too, right along beside you.

In your life, we wish we could give you a very special gift. It would be this: When you look in the mirror the days ahead, may you smile a hundred times more than frowning at what you see. Smile because you know that a loving, capable, sensible, strong, witty, precious person is reflected there. Never lose that ability to smile and see the bright side of things. You always could turn lemons into lemonade.

And.....when you look at us, may you remember how very much we love you.....and how very much we always will!!!!

*All our love,
Daddy and Mom*
