

I don't have all those fancy words to say to you, but I do have a few that I hope you never forget. You remember those times when you didn't get everything your way, and you couldn't understand why, and I told you that one day you would understand? Well, that day still hasn't come, but when it does, you too will understand that it was because of these three very special little words...I LOVE YOU!
 With all my heart and soul,
 I Love You,
 Momma
