*It's hard to believe it's finally here, to watch my sister graduate this year

*We've been through a lot and that's no doubt finding out things we never knew about

*Just yesterday we'd play with a Barbie doll and today all we do is go to the mall

*No more fighting has to be done even though it was so much fun

*I have nobody to watch the real world with me anymore on all those late nights, when you'd come in from the Piggly Wiggly ready to put up a fight

*Sometimes you really got on my last nerve and scared me to death running over the curbs

* But you just Piggy know how much you mean to me, cause I didn't show it like I should, but you know me and how I am. I really wish I would

*Good Luck in the future in all that you do, and always remember your little sister loves you.

Love always- Joni

Katie.

You may not see the angels
you may not see the air
but our love for you
you can feel, its everywhere

It seems like it was yesterday that we became proud parents of a beautiful baby girl. We have watched you grow into a fine young lady whom we are still proud of today. All the paper in the world could not hold our feelings, memories, tears, joy and happiness that we feel today for our peaches and Kade. Keep God first in your life, hold onto your dreams, and if you shoot for the moon and miss, you can always grab a star. We are so proud and love you soooo much.

When you awake to a bright sun-shiny morning or a gray and rainy day- May God be with you and bless you all along your way. When twilight draws its curtain and pins it to a star Remember dear we love you- no matter where you are.
