

Courtney,

It is so hard to believe my baby is getting ready to graduate from high school and aspires to continue her education to become a nurse. Where have the years gone? You have been such a blessing and we are very proud of all you have accomplished. You have great gifts to offer: love, kindness, and a desire to help others, especially children. I know this desire along with your dedication and faith in God will lead you wherever you wish to go.

We love you!

Courtney,
We are very proud of you. I can't believe my little sister is graduating from high school. Good luck in school next year. Always know we are here for you if you need us.

We love you!
