

Adam,

You are truly a gift from God. It has been a joy being your parents. Over the years we have watched you grow from a tiny bundle to the handsome young man you are today. Thank you for the pleasures that you have given us along the way.

You are your own person with a special blend of so many qualities; a magnificent combination of feelings, hope, thoughts and dreams. You are so full of life, with a great sense of humor. Always keep that big beautiful smile.

We know that the world is not always fair to go. In the tough times of life when things are not going the way you like, we want you to remember that you can always turn to us. Always know that you can come home for unconditional love and support.

We wish for you a year that is filled with old friends and with new. Study hard and do your best and may all of your dreams come true. Remember to start each day with a little prayer, and ask God to lead your way. You are a special young man and we love you so very much.

Dad and Mom

