

Kelli,

Good luck and loving wishes as you start a new phase in your life. You have always been an achiever and we are sure you will accomplish any goals that you will face in the future. You have always been a beautiful, intelligent, good girl! Keep God first in your life and you will never want anything. We are very very proud of you!!

We love you so much,
Granny & Aunt Libby

Catherine,
"Family faces are magic mirrors. Looking at people who belong to us, we see the past, present, and future." Thanks for the joy you brought into our family!

Love,
Pap, Granny, and Kitty
