

Jeff,

Where have the years gone? It seems not so long ago that you were born-our son, the "middle sweetpea in our pad"... You were Corey's "little brother" and became Mandy's "big brother", a precious "grandson" and then Cody's "Uncle Jeff". You are special to us all.

As your parents, grandparents and family, we all wish for you the best that life can offer. Our desire is for you to be safe, happy, and content with the future that awaits you. You have many assets, and your smile is contagious to those around you. Please remember to keep using it!

We'll always keep the "notes" of your life close to our hearts-we love you.
