

Kendall,
What can I say but that I think you have come a long way! You have overcome a lot in your life and the person you have become is a wonderful one! You know you hold a special place in My Heart and always will. Good luck in the future and try not to break too many hearts!

Love Always,
Eric

Congratulations Amanda!

I am so proud of you. Having a granddaughter like you has brought so much joy and happiness into my life.

In good and bad times you can depend on my support, guidance, friendship and love.

I wish for you love, happiness, and success in the years ahead as you travel life's journey.

Love,
MaMa
