

Features

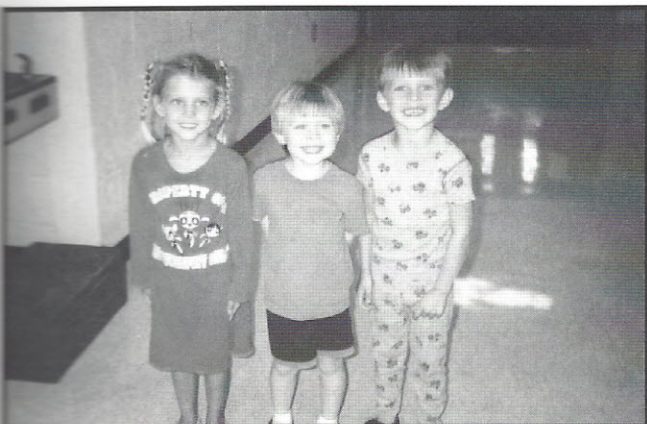

Where Achievements Come From...

Students anticipate special events that occur throughout the year. Whether it's winning the Best Offensive Player for the football team or winning Miss DA, these distinctive achievements are the root of a student's self-esteem. Dorchester Academy has annual banquets in order to congratulate and recognize these talented students. Without extracurricular activities, the yearbook would not be capable of presenting Dorchester Academy's "Features."

The crown bearer of the 2004 May Court, Cole Carter, patiently awaits until his assistance is needed.

The 2004 Homecoming Court anxiously awaits half-time to find out the winner.

Kayla Reynolds serves up magic at the 2004 Junior/Senior Prom.

Emma Moorer, David Beane, and Bryan Marvel show off their favorite pair of pajamas during Spirit Week.

Members of the Class of 2006 take a break from studying to attend the 2004 Academic Banquet.