

"I think everyone was nervous at the beginning and we were glad it was over, but we all had loads of fun." -Noel McDowell

2004

HOMECOMING

After parading around the football field, the girls anticipate the announcement of the winners during halftime. These girls are proudly escorted by their fathers.

The Varsity cheerleaders try to get the fans to "Catch the Spirit" during Homecoming. The cheerleaders worked hard making this banner for the football players to run through.