Where Organizations Come From...

Extracurricular activities are valued highly at Dorchester Academy. Some students opt to participate while others prefer not to. Having a large selection of individuality, there are many differentiated clubs that suit each student's persona. From Interact to Girl Scouts, there is a club for everyone. This proves that where we come from, we truly do enjoy "Clubs."

Jessica Byrd of the Journalism Class dresses up as a Fire Fighter while making a movie about "Everyday Heroes."

These participants in the Student Government "Red Ribbon Poster Contest" are happy to be named the winners.

Jonsey Proctor presents Anni and Cami Crook princess outfits as a gift from the Interact Club during Anni's recent illness.

New Beta Club members look in all different directions as parents take pictures after the induction ceremony.

Kevin Creel and Bryan Eadon are members of the Block "D" Club because of their participation in Varsity Golf.
