

Congratulations Jessica!

It's hard to believe that this day has arrived. We have been proud of you since the day you were born. Our hearts bubble with joy when we remember your baby grins, your funny waddle as you learned to walk, and the woman you have become right before our eyes. You have given us much joy throughout your life. Remember, there are no guarantees in life. Your future is determined by the choices you make today!

*We love you always!
Mom, Dad, and Patrick*
