

Extra Credits

Where Surprises Come From...

Throughout life, everyone seems to ask for more. Some set a goal for themselves and even after reaching it, still seem to be begging for further satisfaction. Exceeding expectations is something every person is proud of, including the critics involved in movies. Just like the school family of DA, they all partake in bloopers, funny faces, and unique activities. So, much like the audience at the end of a movie, Dorchester Academy continues to anticipate the "Extra Credits."

Our headmaster, Mr. Rizzo sure is messy.

Jessica Rosenbalm, Kenley Lutz, and Mark Hughes act crazy during math.

Colby Huff looks like he worked really hard in art.

Mrs. Karen Schwendinger, Lauren Goethe, Elizabeth Ayer, and Deborah Westbury share laughs while looking at pictures.

Hank Hutto must think something is funny, because the expression on his face sure is.
