

Varsity Cheerleading

Cheerleaders encourage and lead spectators into cheering at an athletic event or pep rally. Overall, cheerleading is characterized as a sport. It includes memorization of cheers, physically demanding practices, stunts, routines, dedication, and most importantly, team work. Cheerleading requires practice, strength, team spirit, endurance, team cooperation, and coordination. Of all the many characteristics of cheerleading, the 2005 Varsity Cheerleaders possess the traits that make the cheerleading squad an ideal group of cheerleaders.
