

Jonsey,

The day you were born was one of the happiest days of our lives. You entered the world with a smile on your face and you have continued to make us proud with your winning smile and your accomplishments. You have touched our hearts in so many wonderful ways. Together our family has shared so many precious moments and as we continue to watch you grow, we anxiously look forward to many more treasured moments. We are extremely proud of you and we are so thankful that God gave us such a wonderful blessing for a daughter. Continue to put God first in your life and He will give you strength in all that you do. As you begin your most challenging walk in life, we offer you our continued everlasting love, devotion, and support. We hope that you capture your dreams and find true happiness in life. Congratulations on your graduation and always remember that you will always be our special little girl.

Sissy, I am so proud of you and I wish you all the best. Can I have your bedroom??
