

J A M E S

James,
I am so proud of you! You've just achieved one of the biggest goals of your life and now it is your time to shine. These past few years have been great and we've made memories that will last a lifetime. Remember that you can do anything that you set your mind to and if you work hard you can make your dreams a reality. I love you and I'll always be here for you no matter what!

~Ashley~

James

I can't believe you are graduating. I hope you have a blast in college and all your dreams come true. I love you and will always be here for you.

Love always,
Katie

I cannot believe my little brother is graduating from high school. Good Luck in college, Always remember, I love you. I am always here for you.

Love, Kimberly

