Carolina Girl...You're So Sweet...Best in the World

*Michelle,
Mom and Dad are very proud of all of your accomplishments! Academically, athletically, and socially, you have gone beyond our many dreams! Since you were an adorable little ballet dancer, or an ice princess gliding on skates, or a team softball player, or a terrific DU Raider cheerleader or greater still, a Junior Miss winner, you truly epitomize perseverance and commitment! However, leadership, dependability, and Faith in God are your most endearing qualities! Carry them with you to college and beyond in your career as a teacher. Remember us always, we always and unconditionally love you so very much!*

*Michelle,
I am so proud of your achievements you have made in high school. The past two years have been different in college without you, and I am sure they will be even more different when you go to college. I am only a phone call away if you ever need me. Make the most of your senior year. I love you with all of my heart.
(Dad) David*
