

Chelsea

Chels,

Where has the time gone? Seems like just yesterday my sweet little angel was born and I thank God each day for the precious blessing that he has given me. I have watched you grow from that beautiful baby girl into a beautiful young woman. You are so full of life with a great sense of humor. Always keep that big beautiful smile.

As these high school days are ending, a new challenge is about to begin. Live each day to the fullest and face all of your challenges in stride and your accomplishments will be rewarding. Life is not always fair but remember that you have a loving family that supports you and will always be there for you.

May your life be filled with good health, joy, happiness, and love. Always keep Jesus in your heart and you will never go wrong. I wish you success and for all of your dreams to come true. You will always be "my little girl." I am so proud of you and love you more than you will ever know.

I Love You,
Mom

To a great "big" sister,

CONGRATULATIONS!!! What am I going to do without you "cruising" me around? Just remember to always follow your dreams and you can accomplish anything that you put your mind to. Good luck in college.

I love you always,
Your "little" sister
Brandi
