

To "My Jeffrey"

The years have quickly passed. When you were a baby, I cherished the time I spent looking at you sleeping, so peaceful; trying to capture that moment forever, for I knew time would go so fast. As I look at you today, I am full of pride and joy. You have become a wonderful young man. Graduation is a special accomplishment, but just a stepping-stone of what is to come. Always be a respectable and trustworthy person, and stay in church. We will always be here for you.

Love,
Moma, Daddy, & Jam
P. S. We love you - Ca- Ju
