

Jeffrey

Congratulations on your achievements. We are so proud of you. You have been a very special grandson to us from the day you were born. The time has really flown by. It's hard to believe your senior year of high school is here.

Thank you for everything you have done to make us feel special and remember we love you and wish you the best in life.

Love always,
Grandmoma & Granddaddy

