Congratulations Amy,
We are so proud of you. I remember when you were just starting school. Where has the time gone? I look at you now and see a beautiful and smart young lady. You make good decision and I trust you completely. You are quiet, but yet you are stubborn as a mule. This is why I feel like you will be very successful in whatever field you choose in life. Remember to always do what makes you happy. "It's Your Life." Amy remember I will always be here for you during the good and bad times.

We love you,
Moma and Daddy

Congratulations to a wonderful granddaughter!
