

Tiger Woods

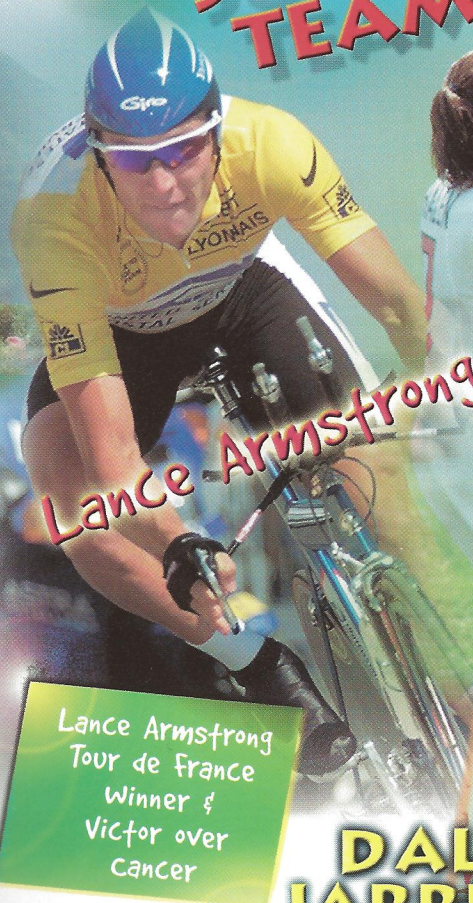

PGA GRAND SLAM

U.S. SOCCER TEAM

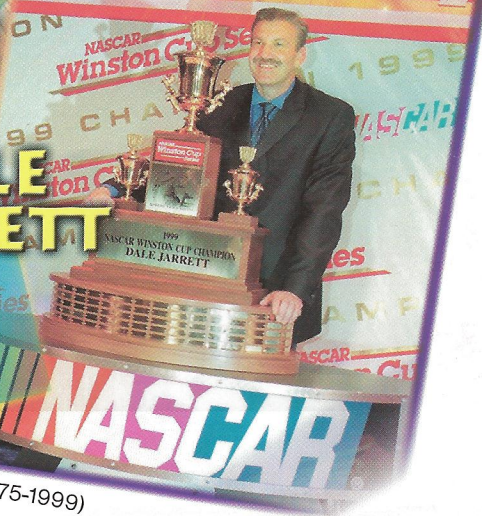

United States Women's World Cup Champions

Lance Armstrong

Lance Armstrong
Tour de France
Winner &
Victor over cancer

Winston Cup

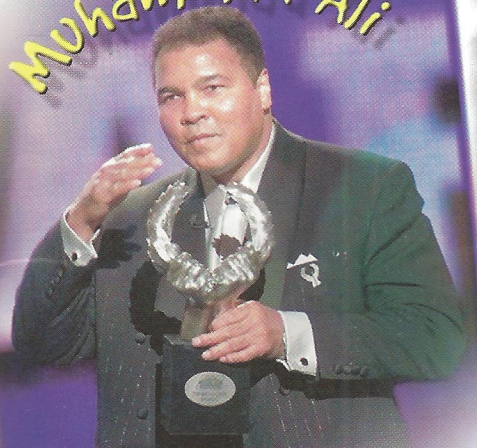

DALE JARRETT

1999 NASCAR WINSTON CUP CHAMPION DRIVER

Farewell to Payne Stewart (1957-1999)

Muhammad Ali

Sports Illustrated's Sportsman of the Century Award Boxing legend

MUHAMMAD ALI

Farewell to Greg Moore (1975-1999)

1979

U.S. President Jimmy Carter is instrumental in joining Egyptian President Anwar Sadat and Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin to sign a peace treaty between Egypt and Israel.

Margaret Thatcher becomes Britain's first female Prime Minister, guiding the country through its worst recession.

1979

1986

A blast at Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant in the Ukraine, leaves 31 people dead, sending large amounts of radioactive material into the atmosphere. In the next 10 years, more than 40,000 people across the countryside are diagnosed with cancer.

Tiananmen Square was the site of a student-led demonstration calling for democratic reform which was crushed by the Chinese government, killing hundreds or perhaps thousands of demonstrators.

1989

1993

Nelson Mandela and F.W. deKlerk share the Nobel Peace Prize for dismantling apartheid in South Africa.

Princess Diana and her companion, Dodi Fayed, are killed in a Paris car crash. She leaves behind two sons, Prince William and Prince Harry as heirs to the English throne.

1997

