

NOVEMBER

In November we elected a President. We ordered doughnuts from the juniors, and we ordered senior rings. Football games were still the high mark of the week, but we were beginning to think about basketball as the season approached.

We selected our beauties for The Talon . . .

