

JANUARY

The New Year was quite a let-down. Exams faced us . . .

The PTO met to elect officers and to express a desire for closer communication with the Board of Directors. This meeting was followed by a joint meeting of Student Council, Faculty, and PTO representatives with the Board to formulate a more efficient communication among the groups.