REFLECTIONS . . .

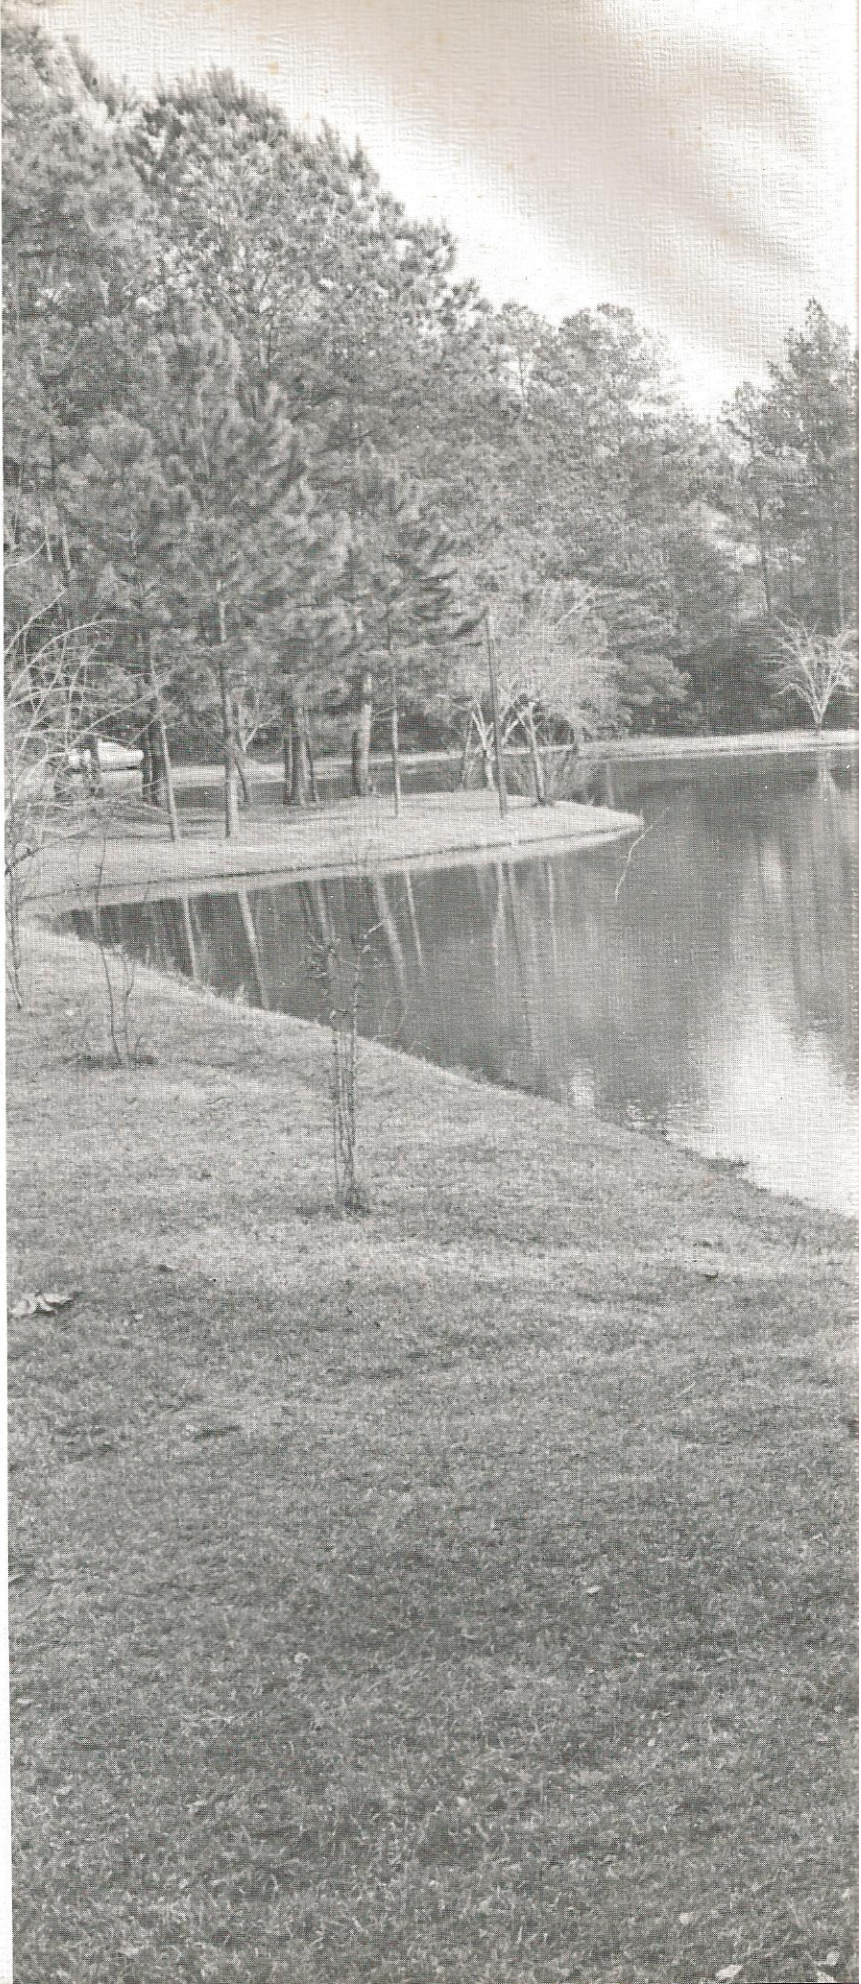

the pages of The Talon should be reflections of the days we have spent at John C. . . .

they should revive in us memories of these days we have shared - good days, bad days . . .

SEPTEMBER

School opened in mid-September, delayed because the new high school building had not been completed. John C. was different - almost twice as large. It was, despite all the usual protests, good to be back, to see old friends, and meet new ones.

Immediately, school activities engulfed us: getting schedules straightened out; stumbling into French class when we were supposed to be in government; buying ribbons on Friday morning; football games on Friday nights; getting the junior class canteen set up . . .

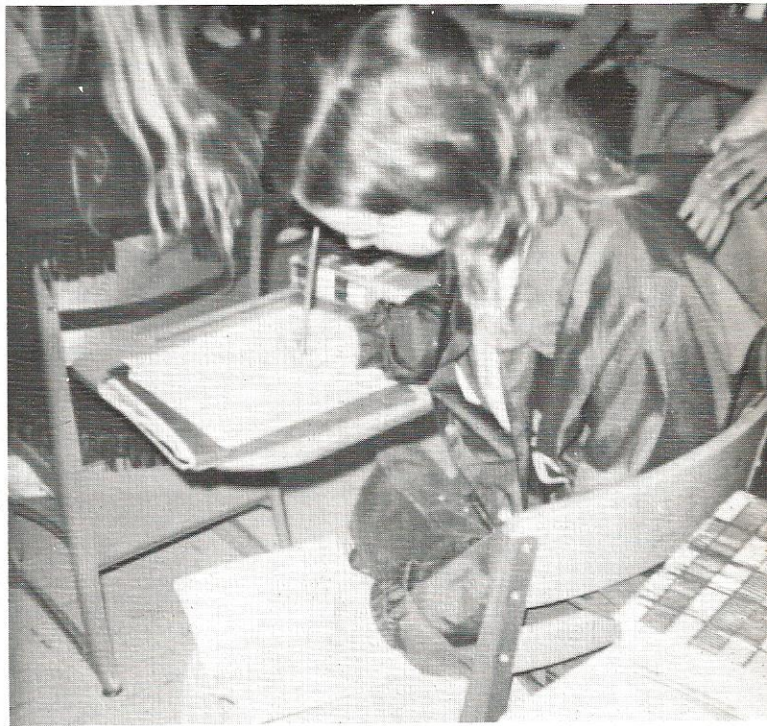

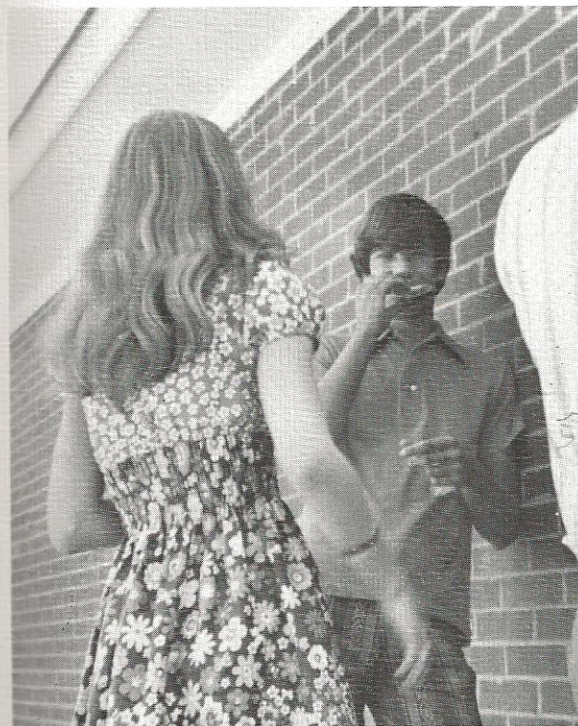

MR. GILBERT BROWN
President, The Booster Club

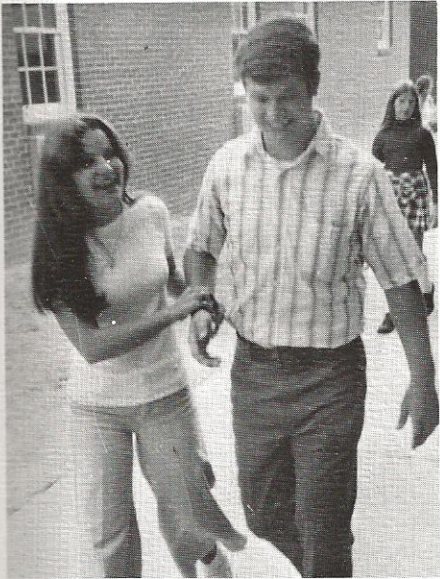

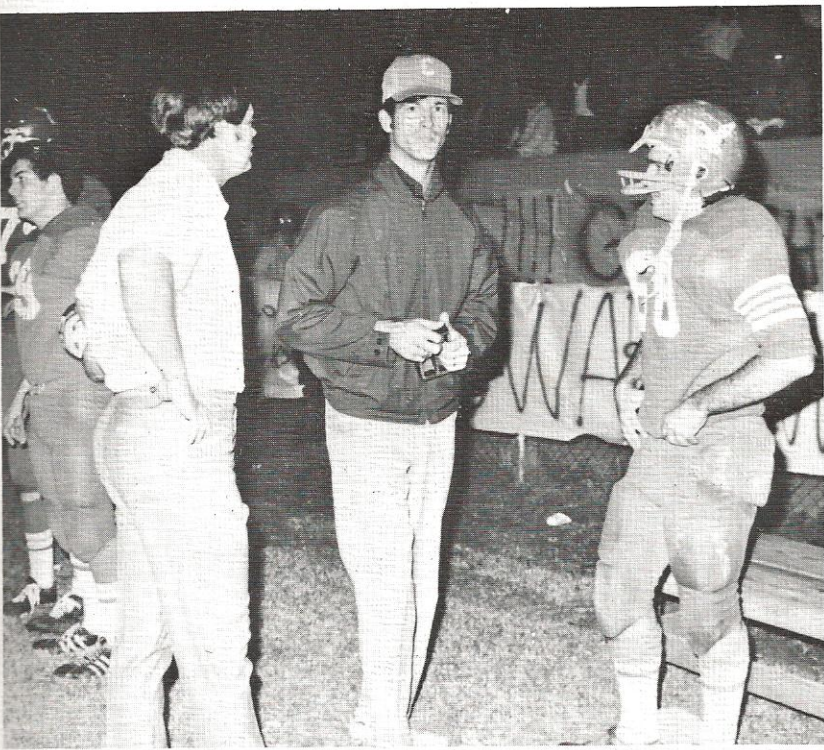

The Booster Club had been hard at work during the summer, raising money for the Athletic program.

We sold ads for The Talon, and the editorial staff began its own work.

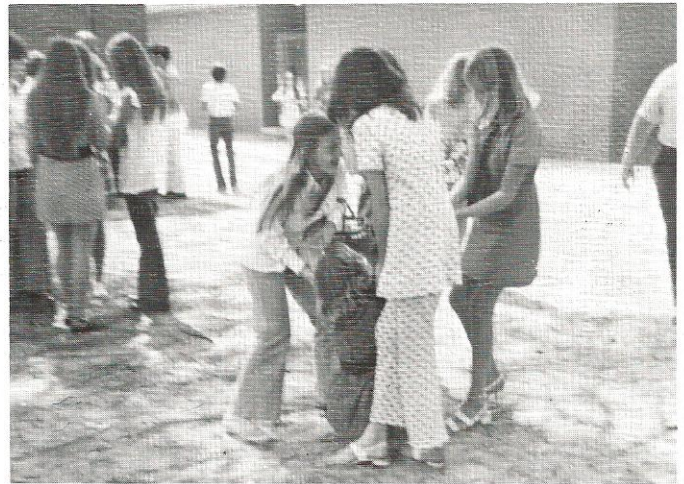

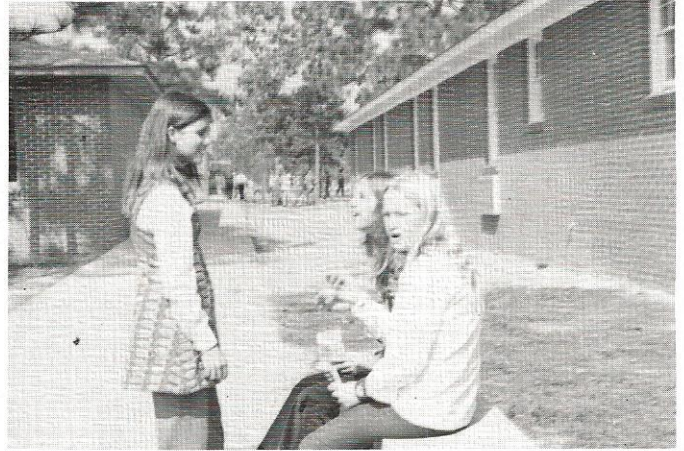

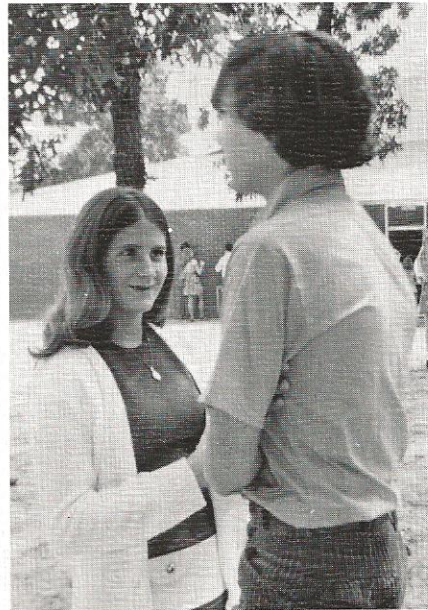

The Yearbook in its infancy

School isn't all work!

OCTOBER

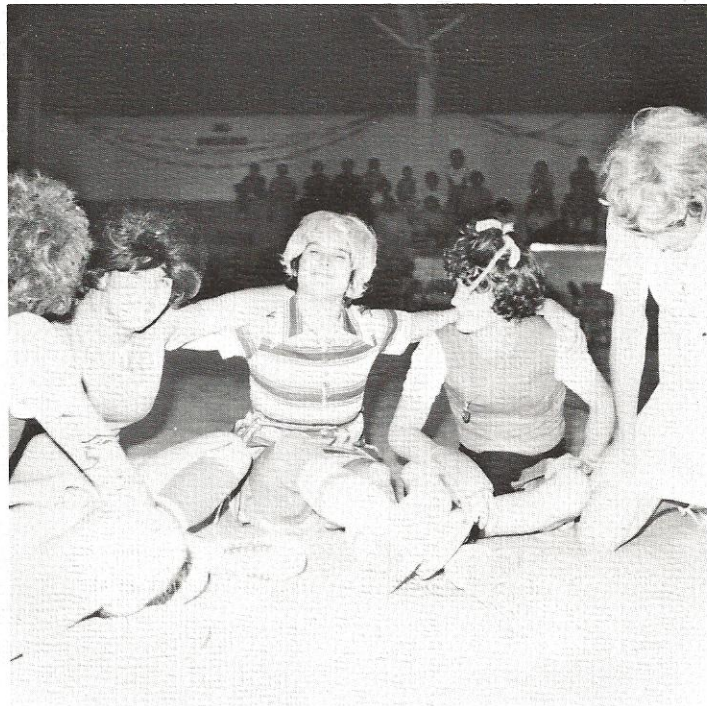

The days began to get a little nip to them as fall approached. Classes were in full swing, and the earlier chaos developed into a smooth routine. We elected a Queen to rule over us at Homecoming. We had another "queen" who ruled over the big Pep Rally, along with our lovely "cheerleaders" . . .

The Retiring Queen

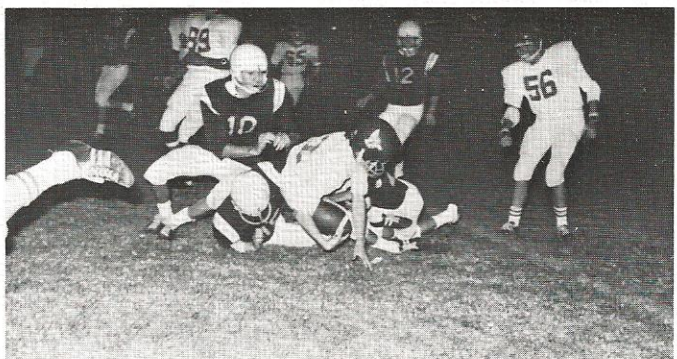

The Candidates

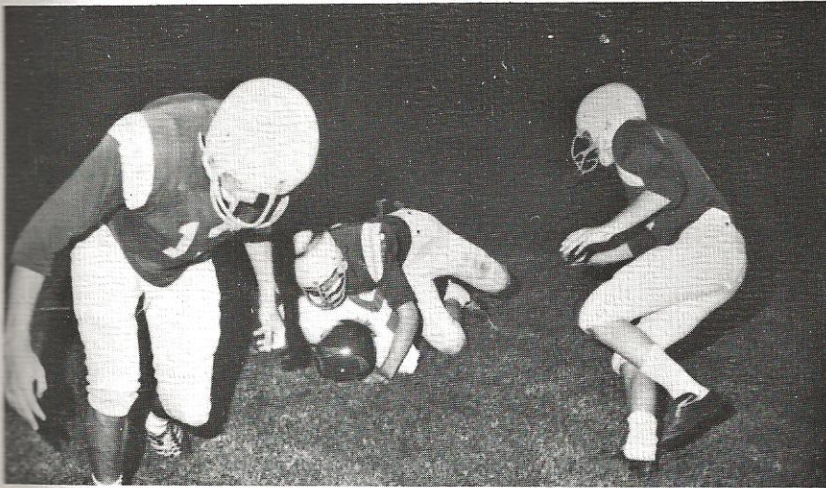

Queen Valerie takes a ride in her royal coach.

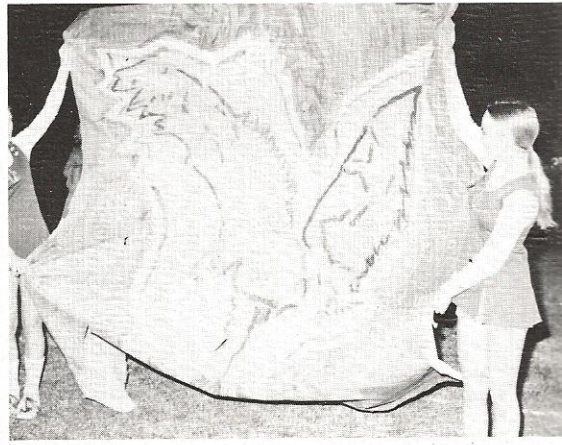

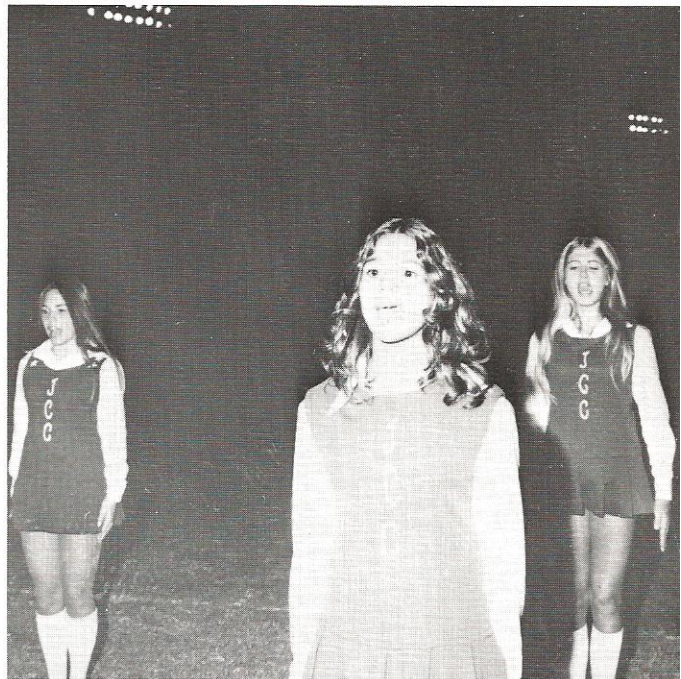

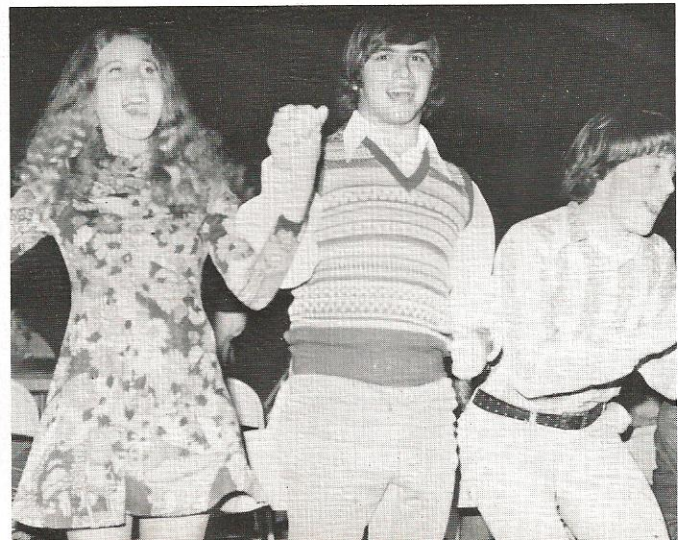

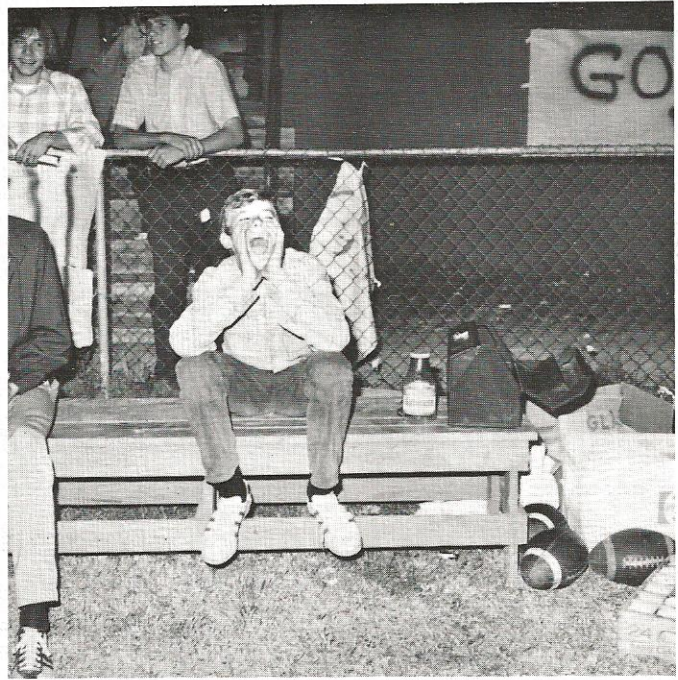

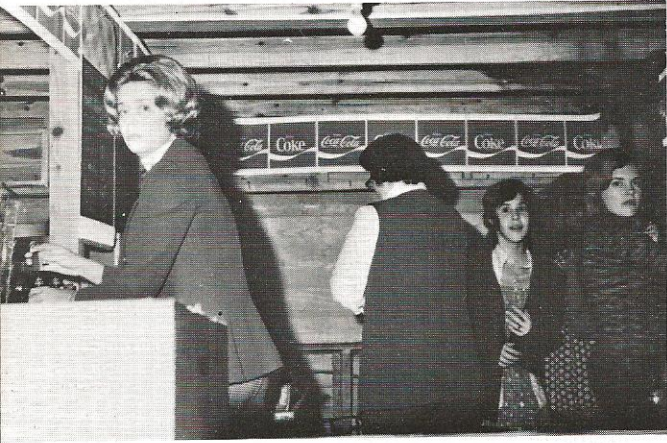

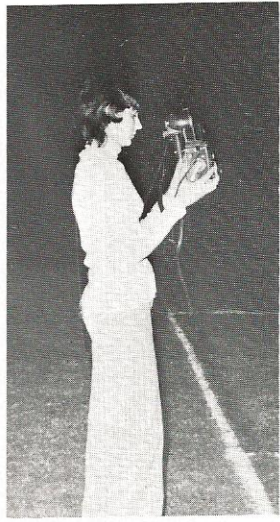

The Homecoming Game ended in a tie -
Willington, 14 - John C., 14.

Kay Bowers, Gail Godwin, and Cindy Thomas were our three Queen candidates; and Cindy was chosen to wear the crown. Alumni Queen Nancy Berry returned to John C. to crown her successor.

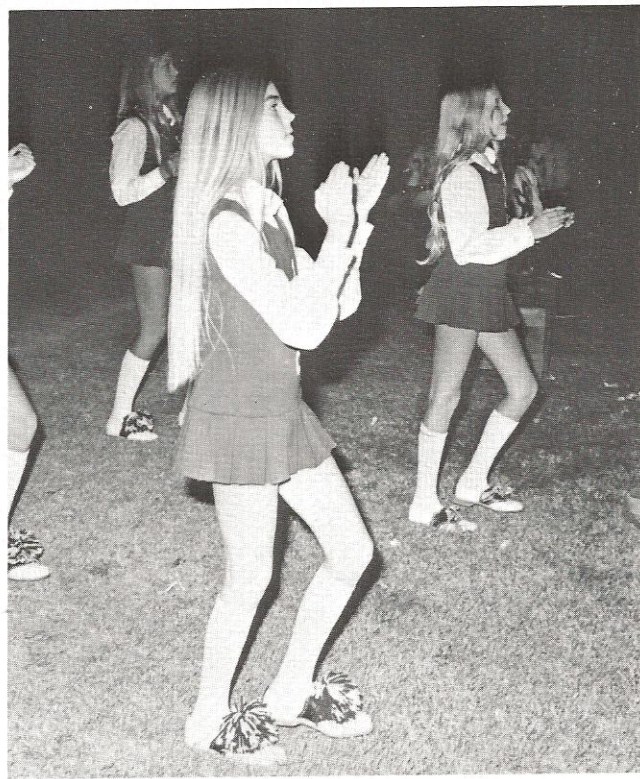

At the Homecoming Dance in the gym, LION provided the music, and much of the entertainment was provided by our talented alumni!

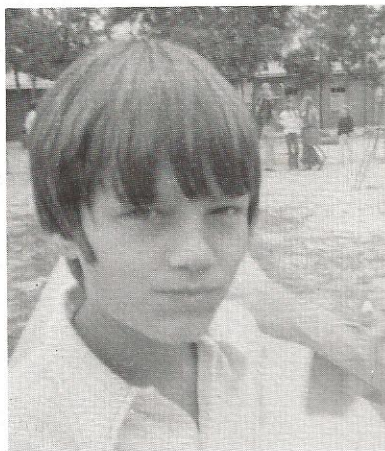

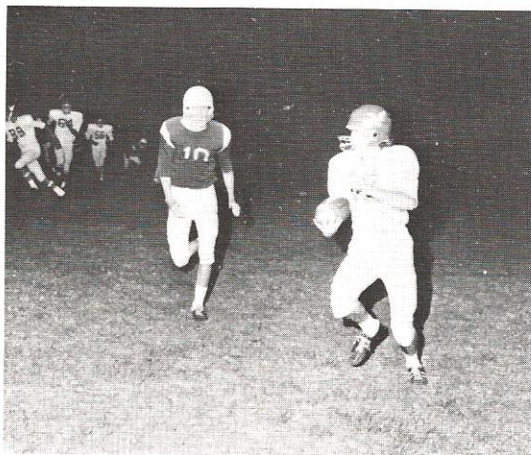

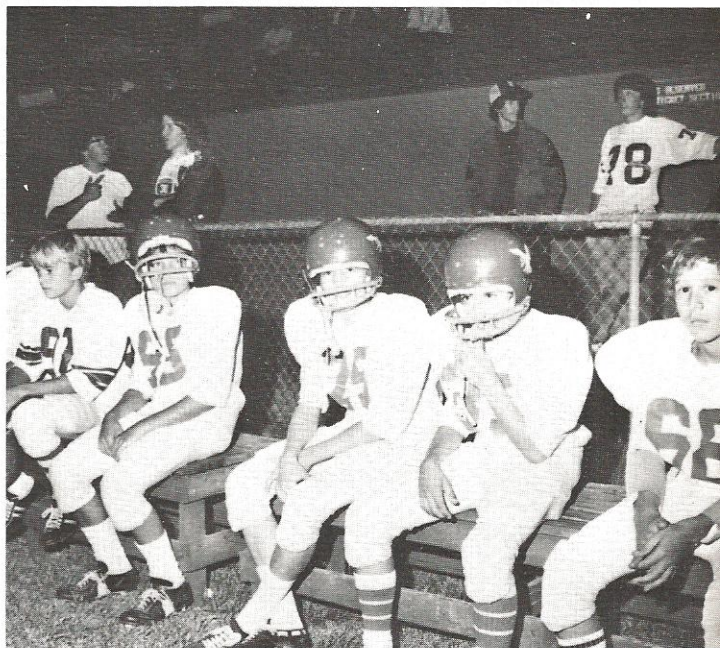

NOVEMBER

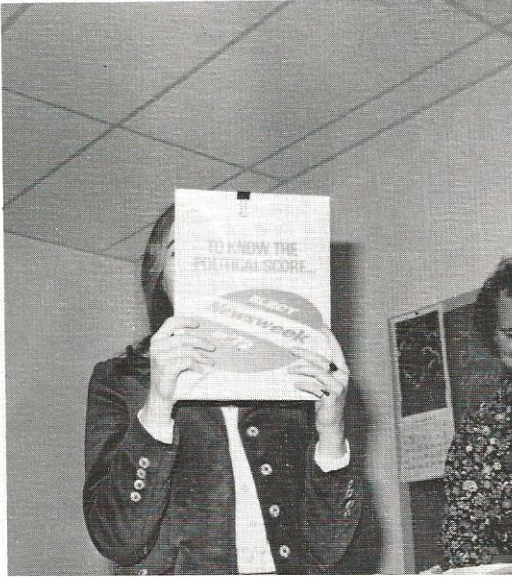

In November we elected a President. We ordered doughnuts from the juniors, and we ordered senior rings. Football games were still the high mark of the week, but we were beginning to think about basketball as the season approached.

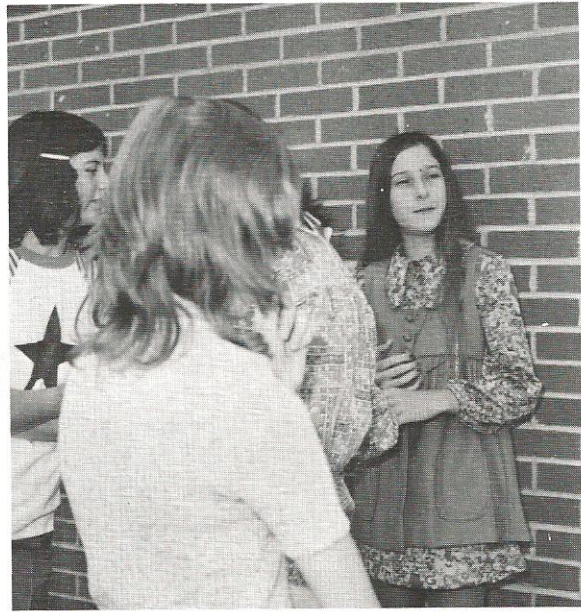

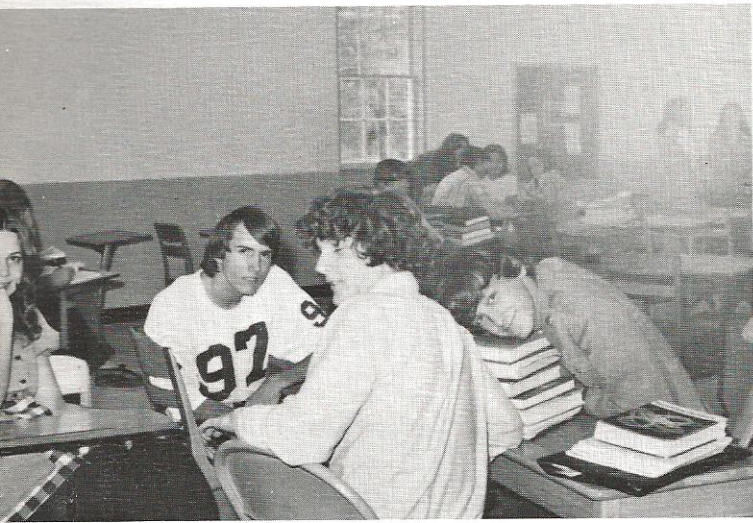

We selected our beauties for The Talon . . .

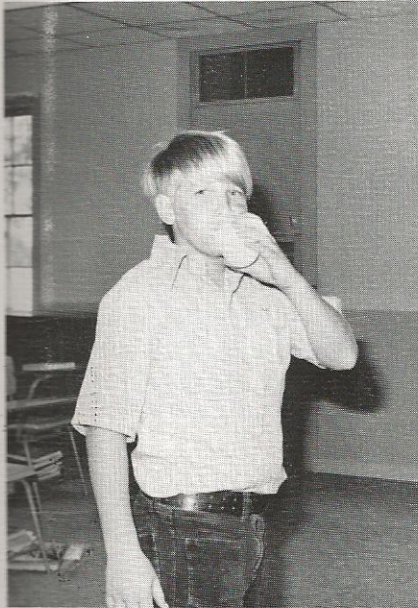

The Big News - Nixon was elected

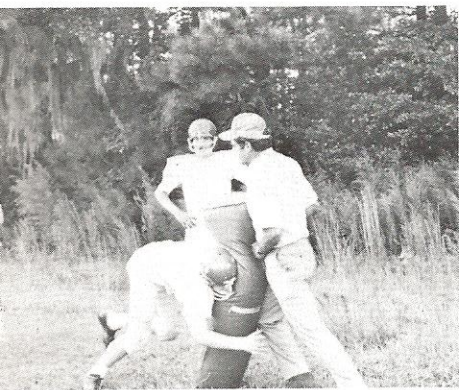

our Ruthie Mae

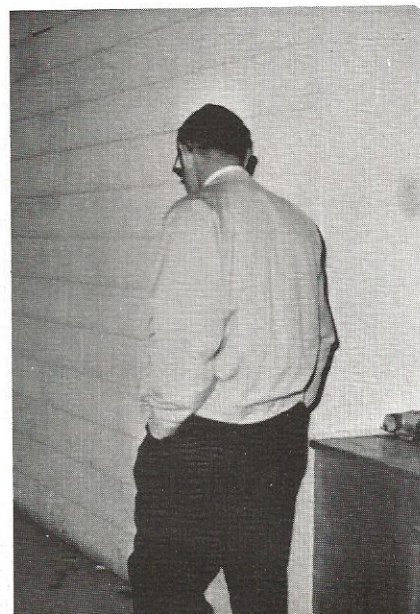

in enemy territory

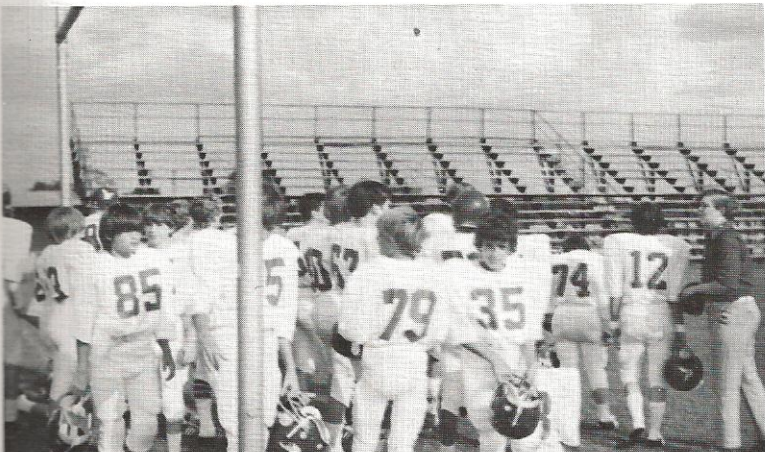

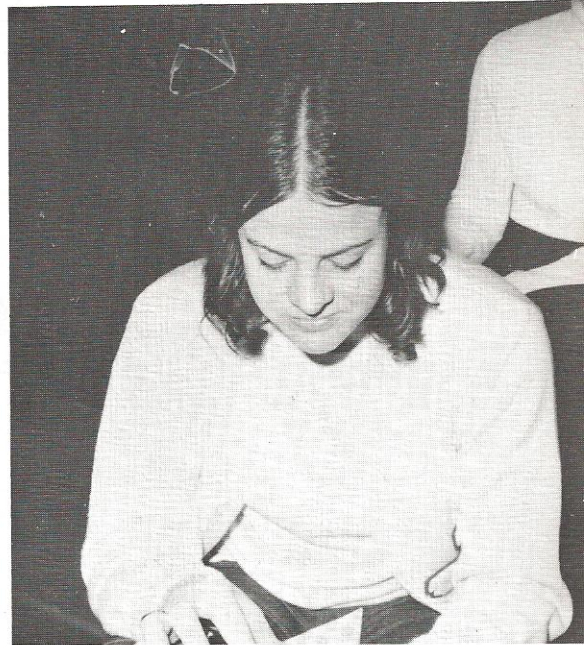

School life had taken on its usual rhythm - tests, book reports, every now and then a warning slip to harass us.

The juniors thought only in dollar signs, and were quickly learning the financial facts of life.

DECEMBER

In December "life is so full of a number of things" - and school ought not to be one of them!

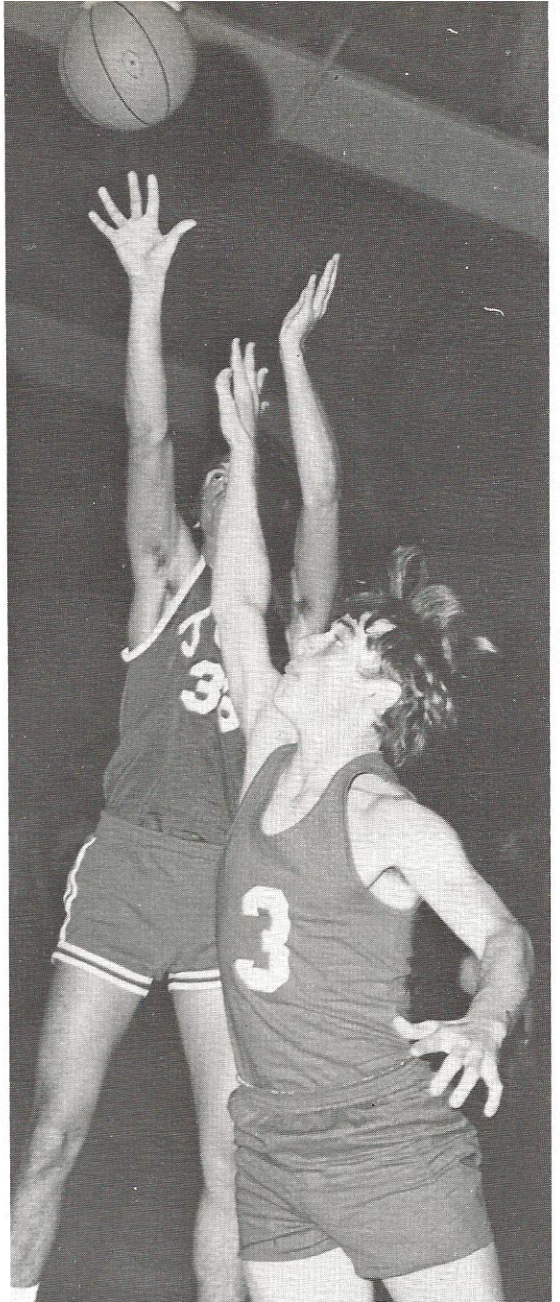

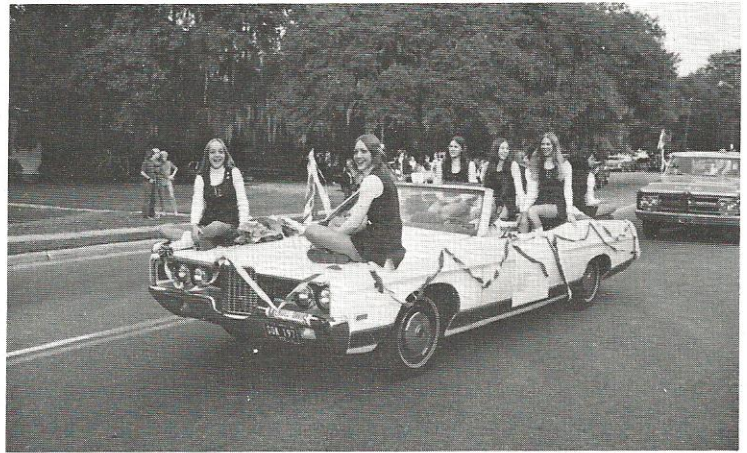

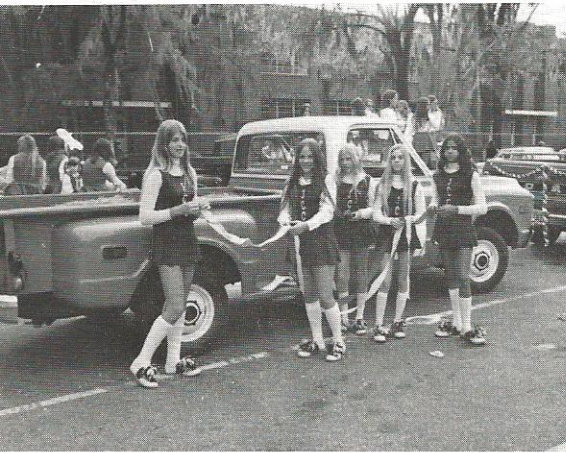

The Christmas Bazaar was staged in the gym and proved again how talented and dedicated our PTO is. The Country Store, The Hawk's Nest, The Grandmothers' Booth, etc. provided us with tantalizing scents and sights . . . and lots of dollars.

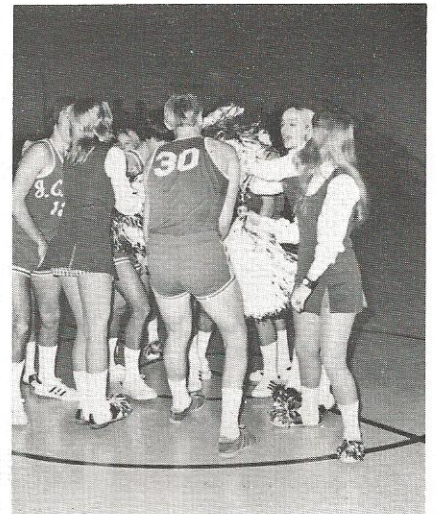

Basketball season started and our Tuesday and Friday nights were reserved for this.

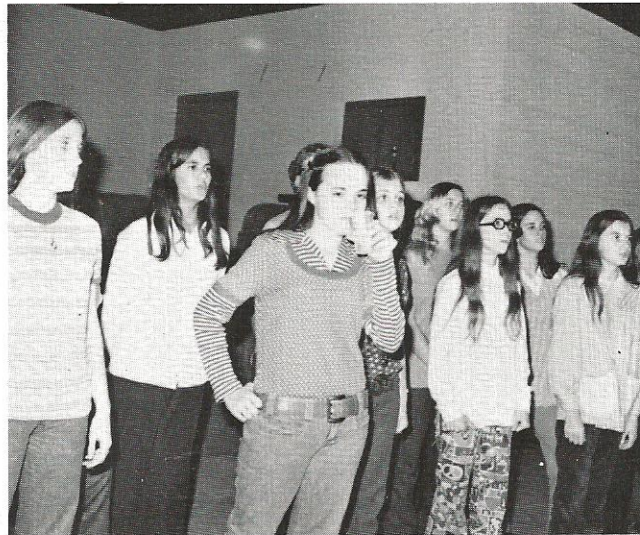

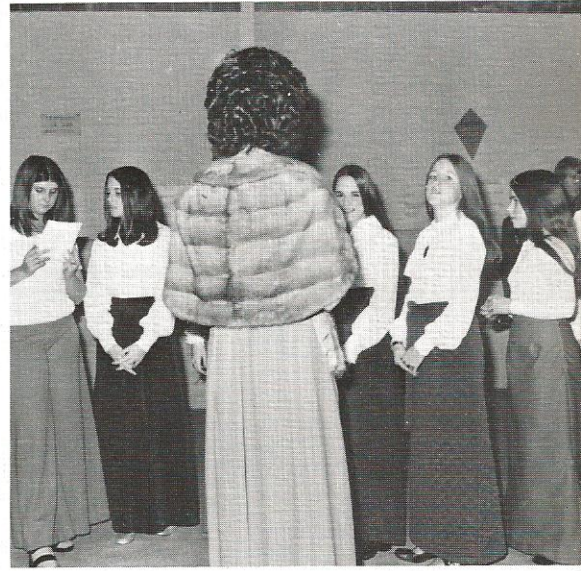

We were represented in the Walterboro Christmas Parade by our junior and senior cheerleaders, and by Cindy Thomas and Robin Odum, Homecoming Queen and Miss DAR . . .

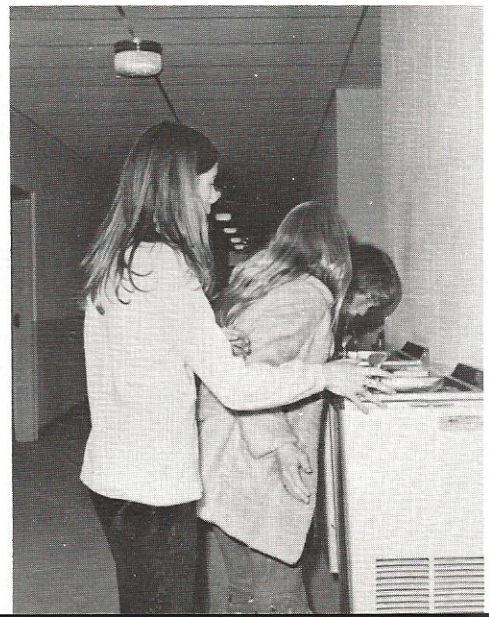

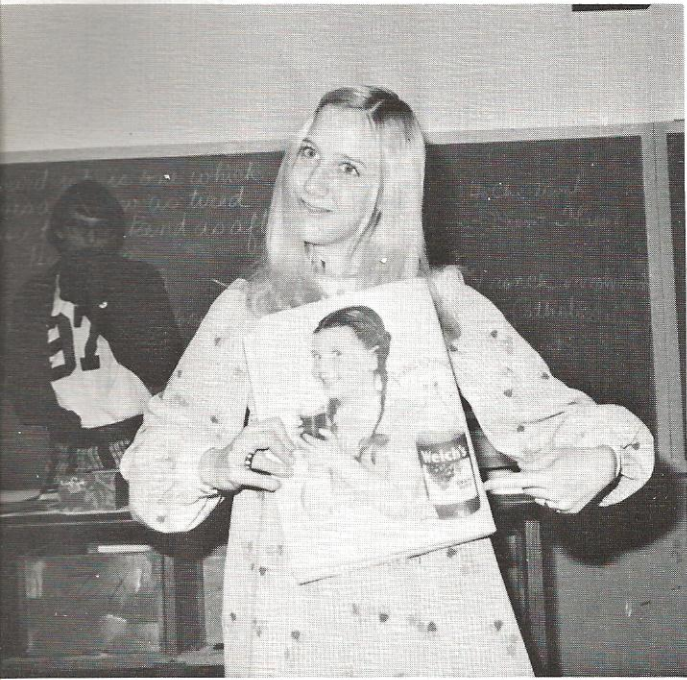

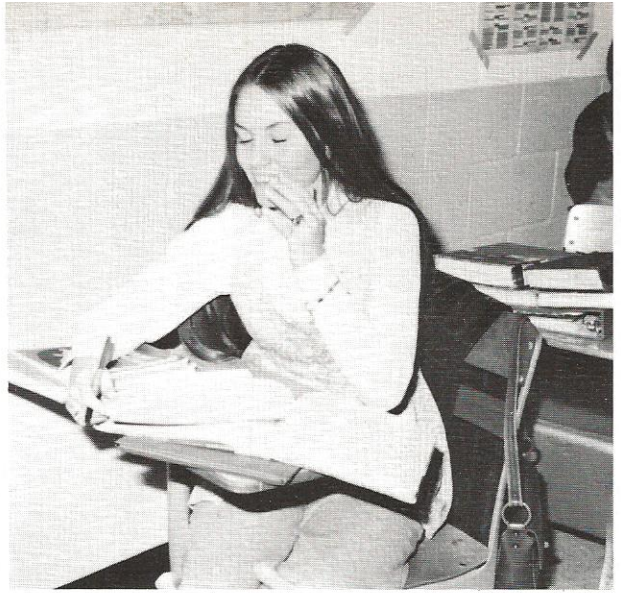

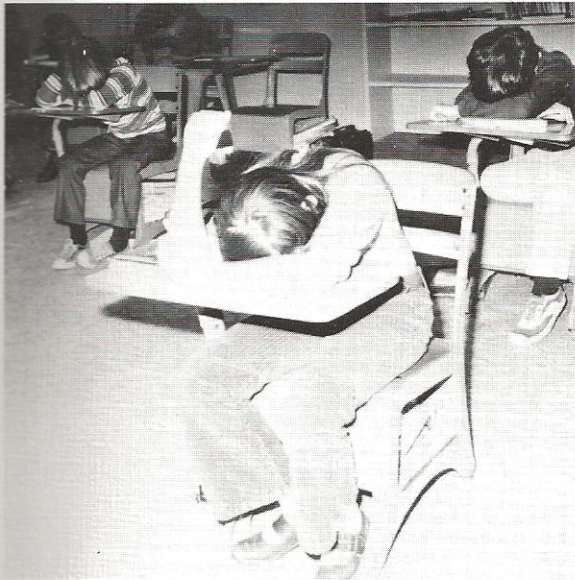

The Chorus practiced and practiced, and it all seemed worthwhile the night of their Christmas concert . . .

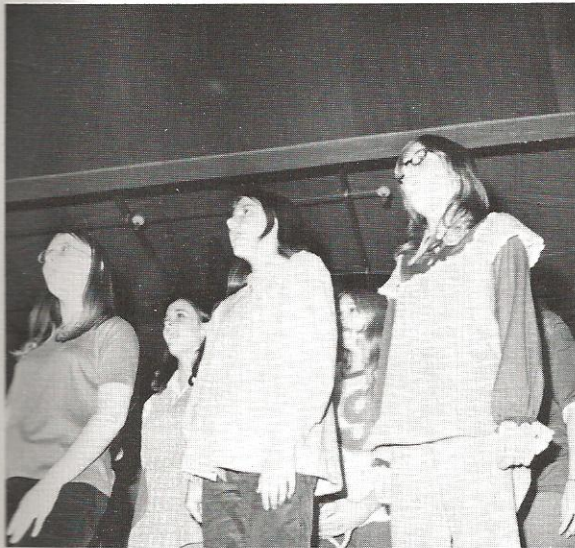

Unfortunately, school must go on. So we performed our duties with as much concentration as we could muster.

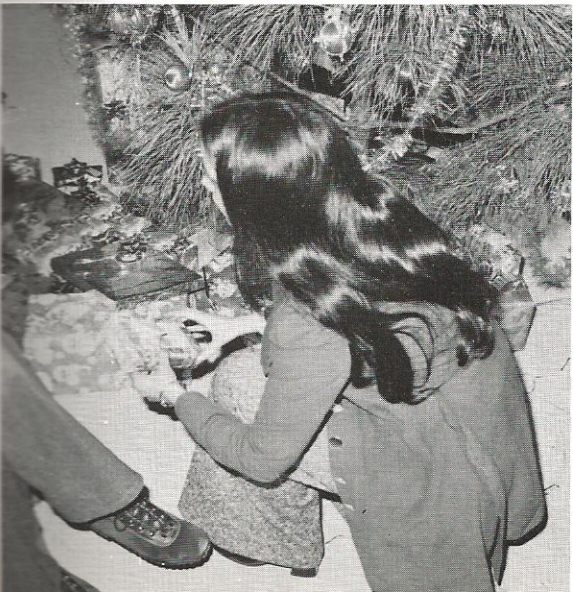

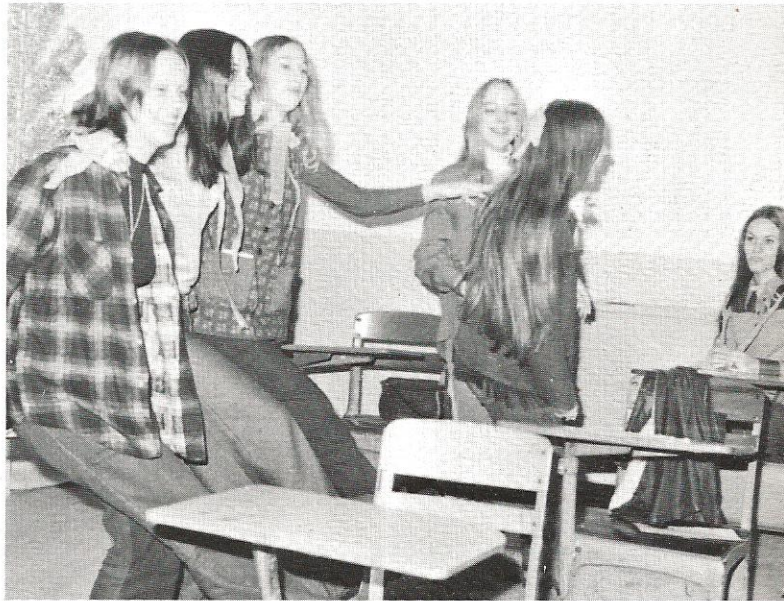

The last days at school before the holidays began were frantic, filled with Santa Claus and Christmas trees and snowmen on bulletin boards - and drawing names in class. Everyone had the spirit.

The little ones dressed up as wise men, and sang carols, and ate cookies and punch in Christmas colors. The high school stayed after school to have parties.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

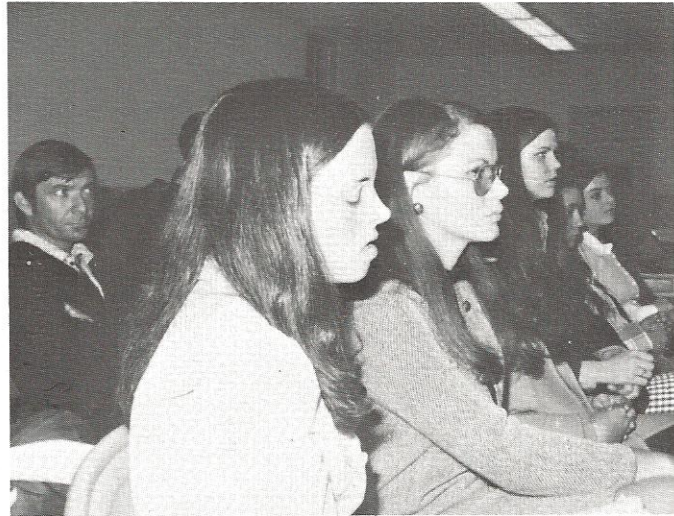

The Seniors celebrate their last Christmas together.

JANUARY

The New Year was quite a let-down. Exams faced us . . .

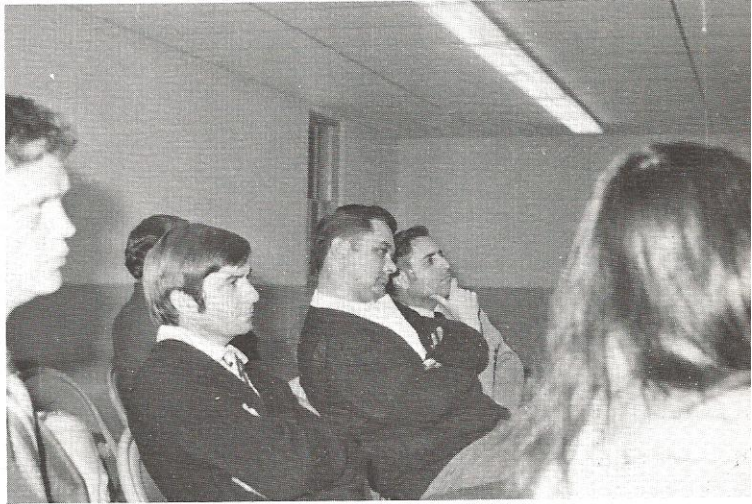

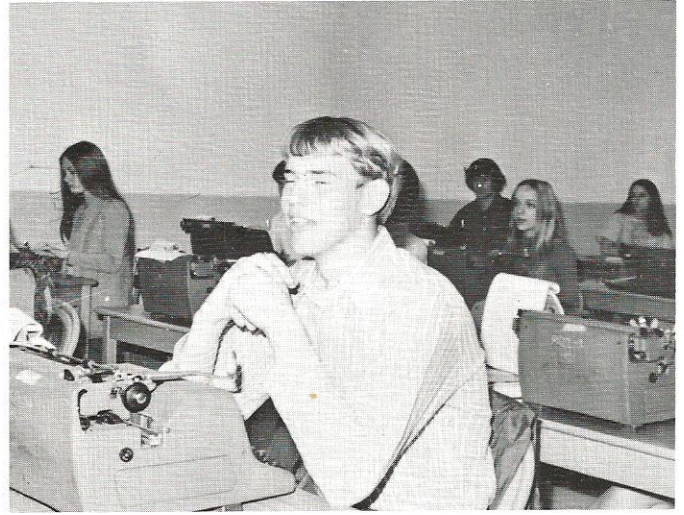

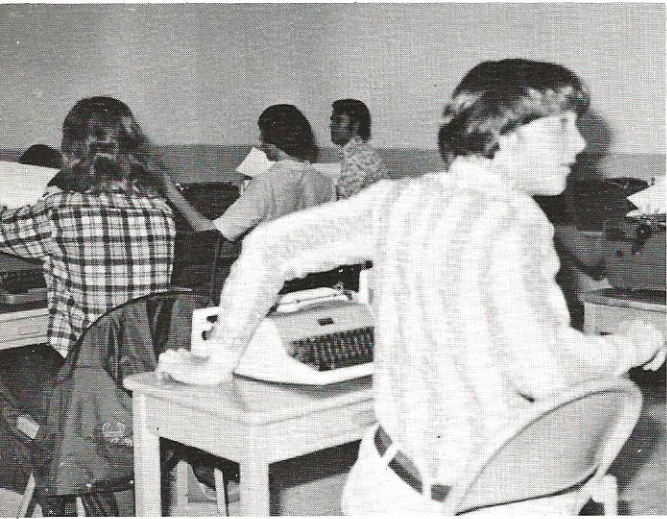

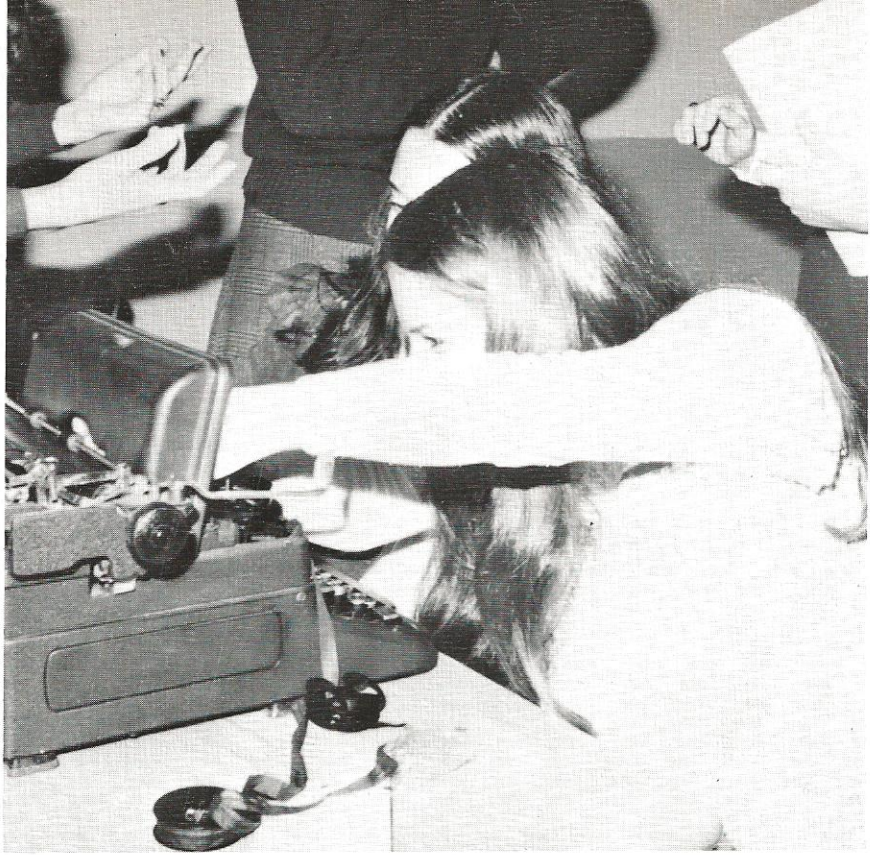

The PTO met to elect officers and to express a desire for closer communication with the Board of Directors. This meeting was followed by a joint meeting of Student Council, Faculty, and PTO representatives with the Board to formulate a more efficient communication among the groups.

Mr. William T. Howell was elected president for the PTO for the new year, and Mr. Roy Gibson was chosen to represent PTO on the Board of Directors.

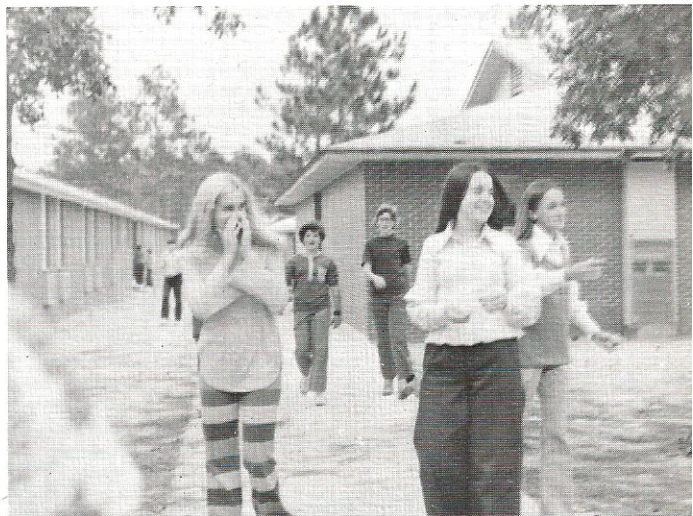

Mr. Howell

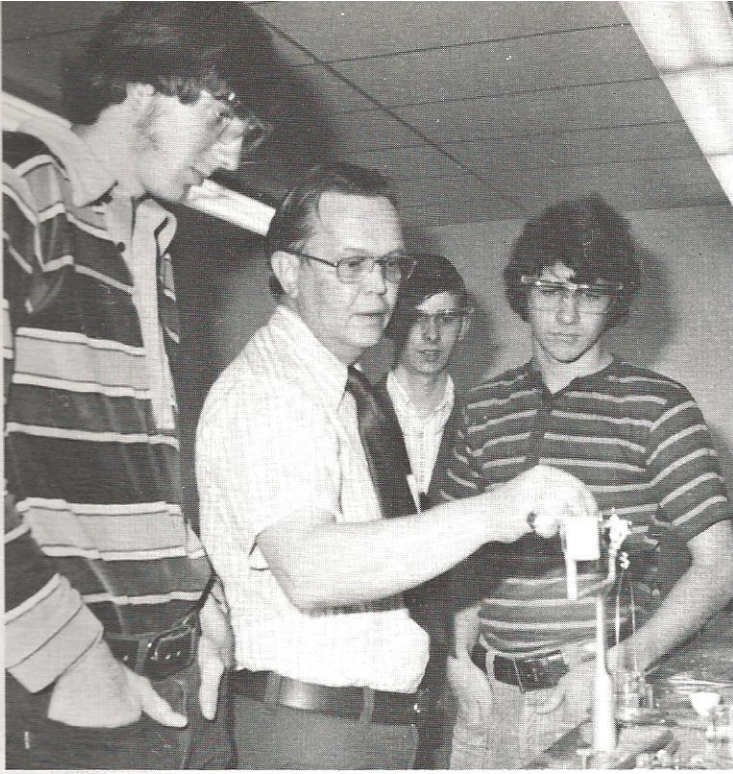

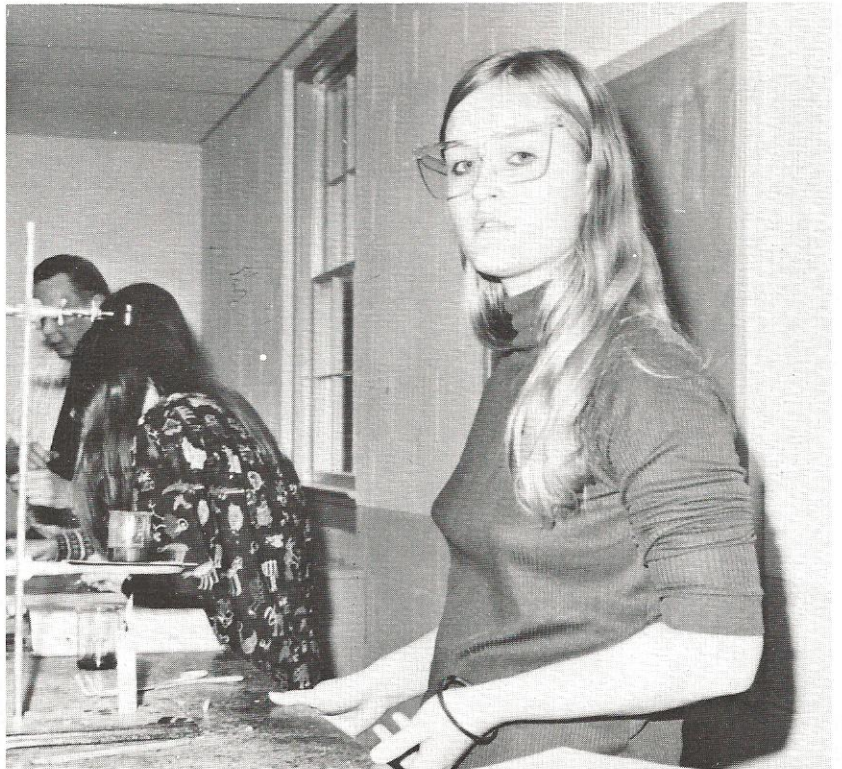

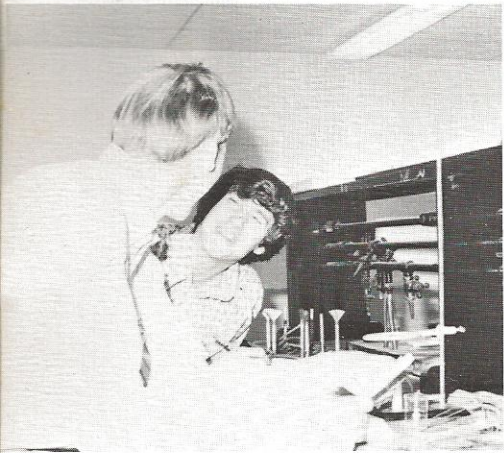

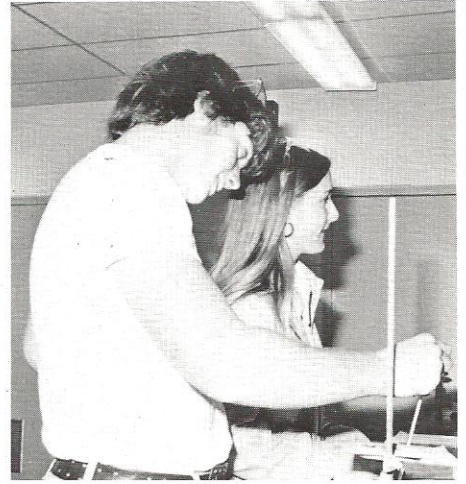

Typing was offered, and Mrs. Rogers had the enormous task of teaching us to be neat and fast at the same time.

We donned our goggles and tried to impress Mr. Smith with our chemistry expertise . . .

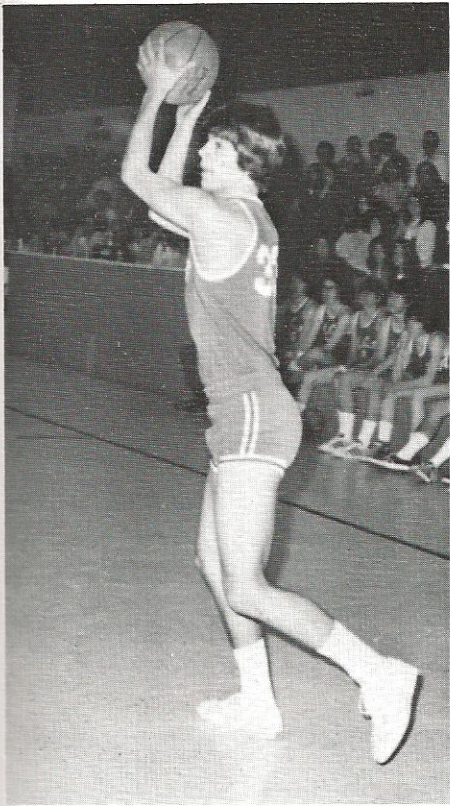

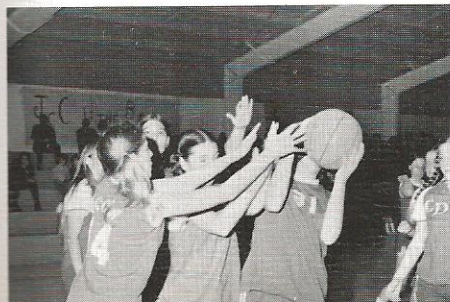

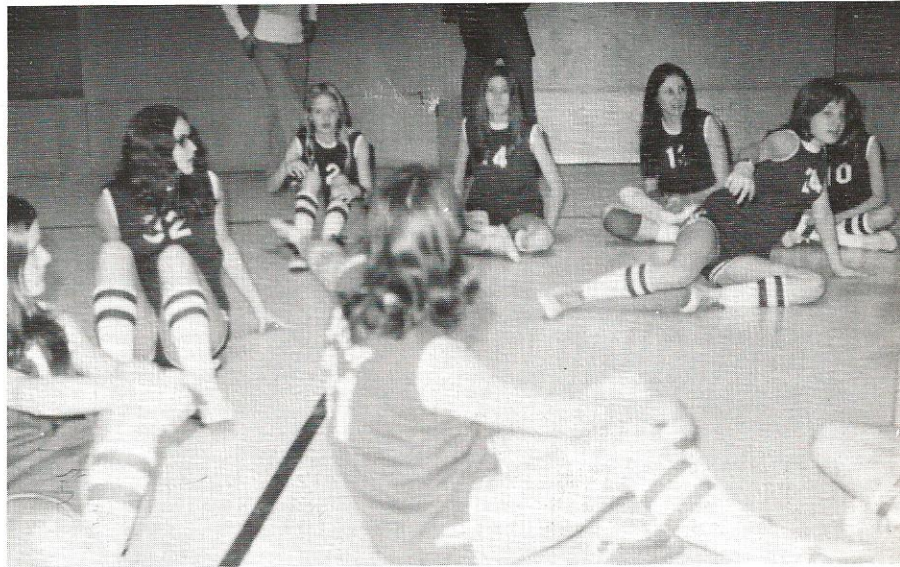

FEBRUARY

A Valentine gift to all - the Viet Nam War had dragged to an end, and our POW's started their journey home.

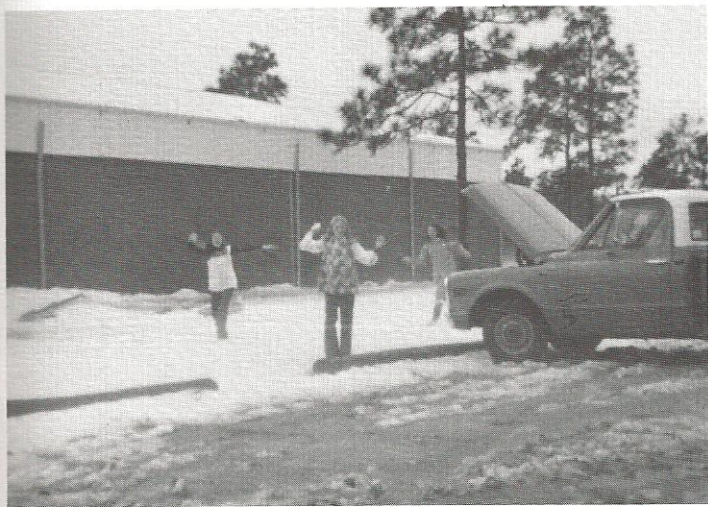

Basketball was still our big sport, but the end was in sight . . .

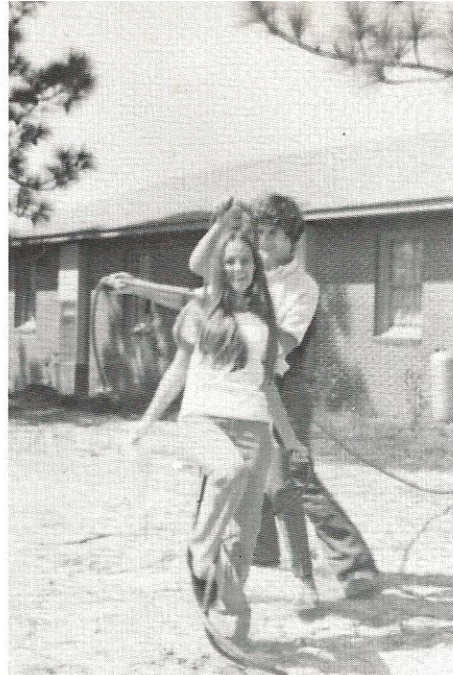

This was the month, the year, of the Incredible Snowfall! Who could recognize our lowcountry under a nine-inch blanket of snow? School was disrupted for days, we remained isolated where we were until the thaw began. Many of us had opened our homes to stranded travelers when thousands of tourists found themselves without shelter and unable to move on.

MARCH — APRIL

There was a sniff of spring in the air, and wasn't it nice to put away the same old tiresome winter wardrobe!

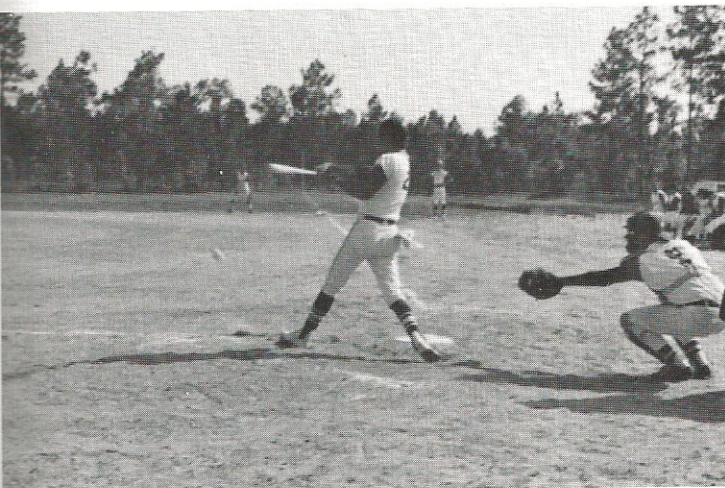

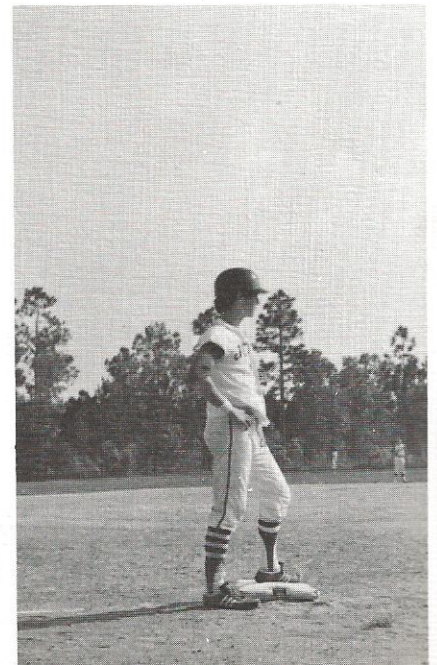

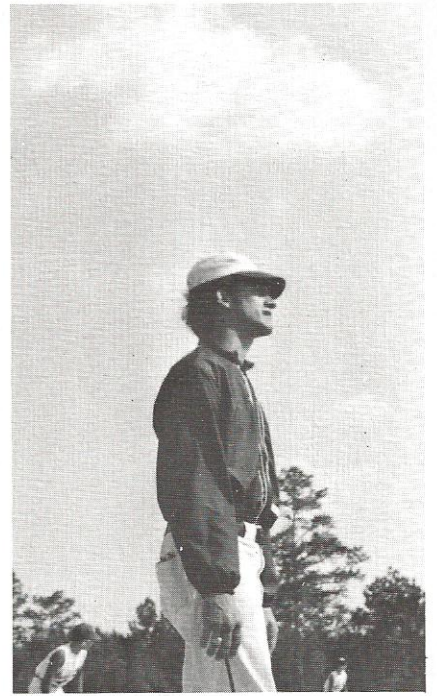

The Athletic Banquet was held with Steve Satterfield of Clemson as speaker. Awards and letters were distributed to those students who had given so much time and effort to their sports.

The crack of a bat on a ball could be heard in the afternoons as baseball practice started.

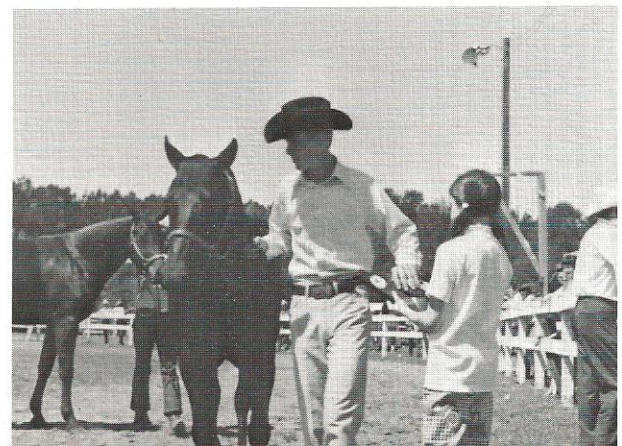

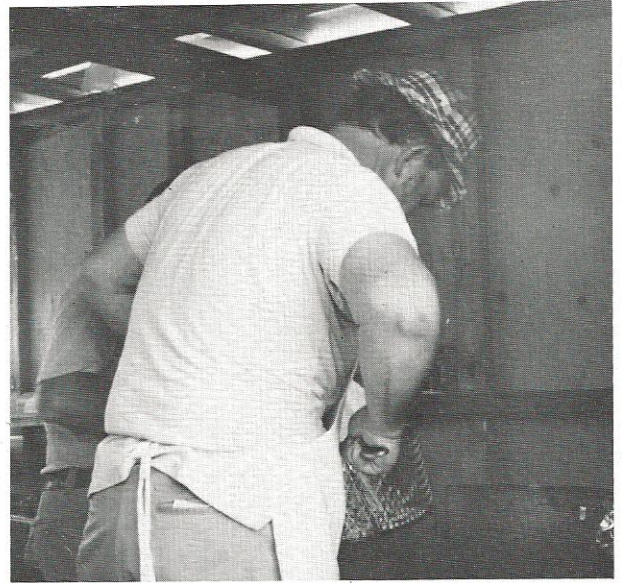

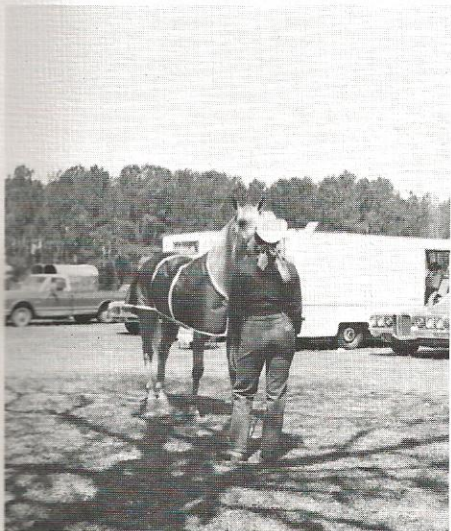

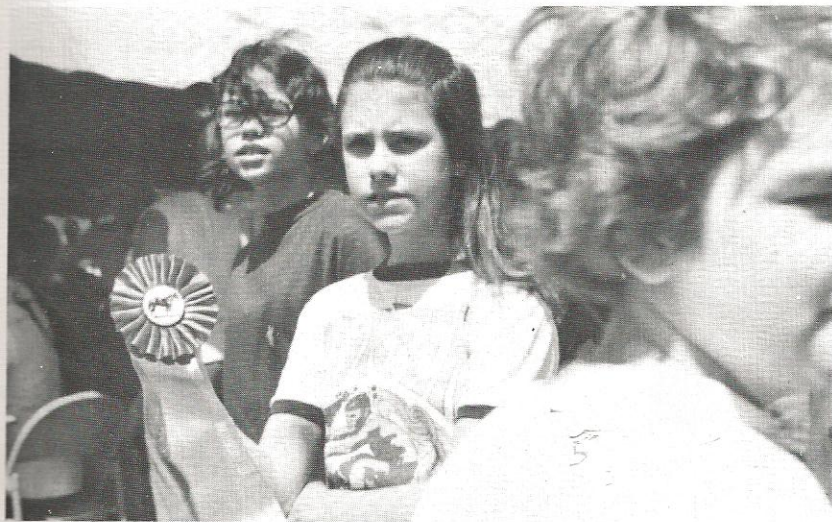

The PTO again busied itself in plans for its horse show. In the spring of '72, it was a recognized Quarter Horse Show, with entries from all over the Southeast.

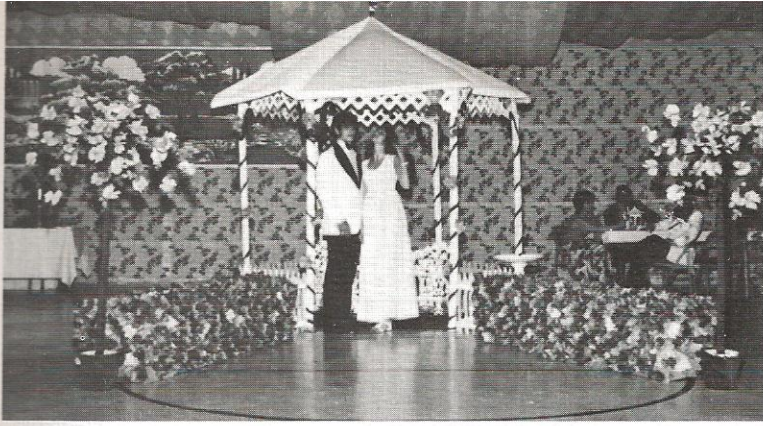

MAY

Junior-Senior! The exhausted juniors presented their graduating friends with a beautifully decorated dance - "A Time for Us" - a really good band, Men of Distinction, and good food. Who could ask for anything more?

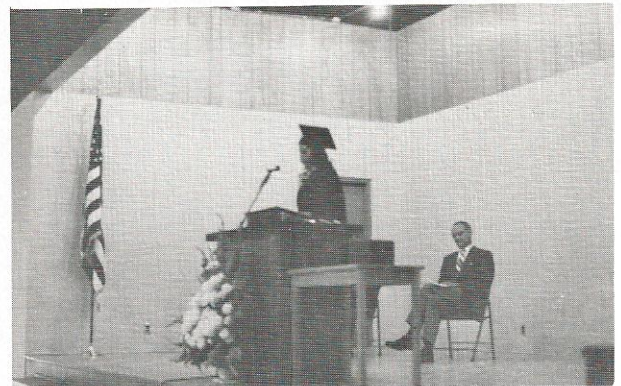

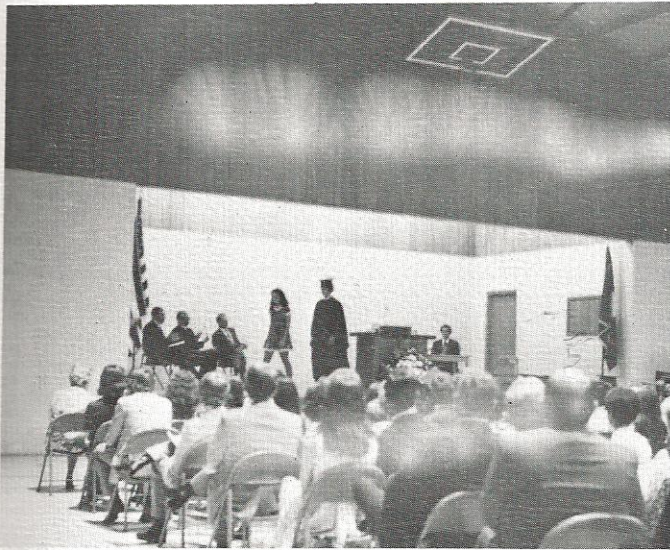

The end of the year was almost upon us. Final exams loomed, not sometime soon, but NEXT WEEK.

Mr. Jones gathered us together in assembly for Awards Day to identify and congratulate those who had excelled during the year and to exhort others to emulate them.

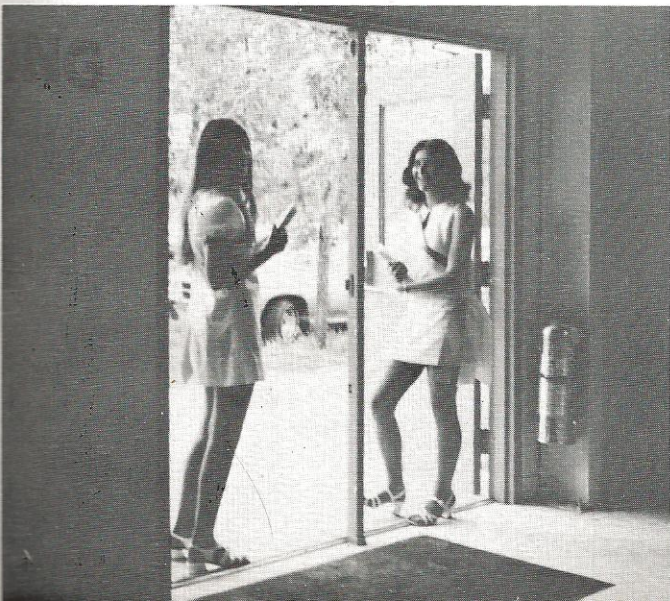

After much delay, the yearbooks arrived during exam week.

It all became a blur - exams, report cards, graduation night. Solemn seniors in caps and gowns - surely these were not our old friends.

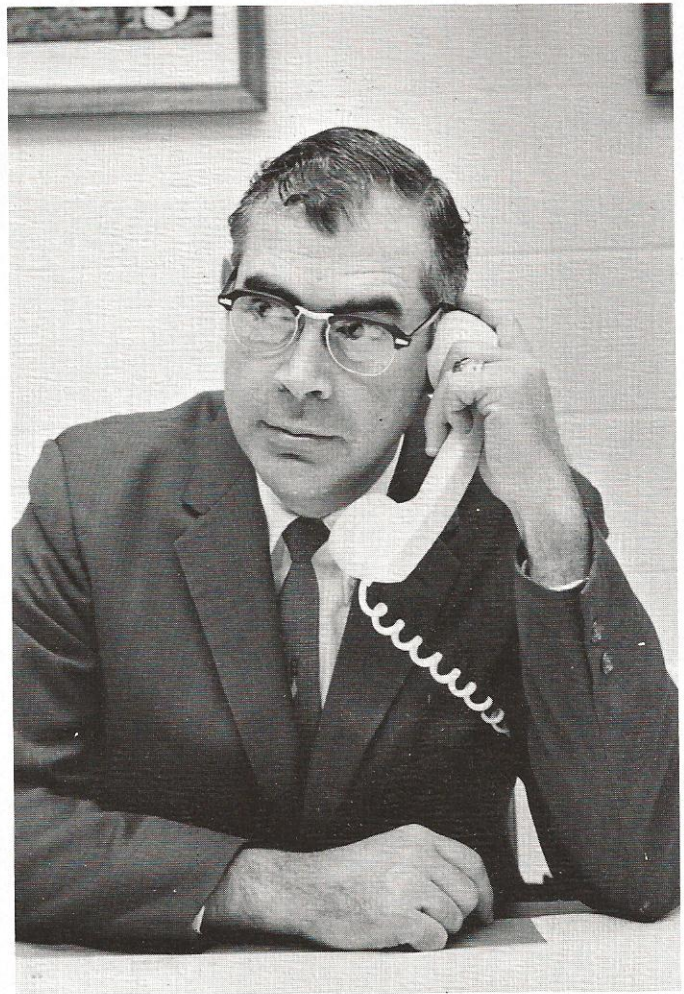

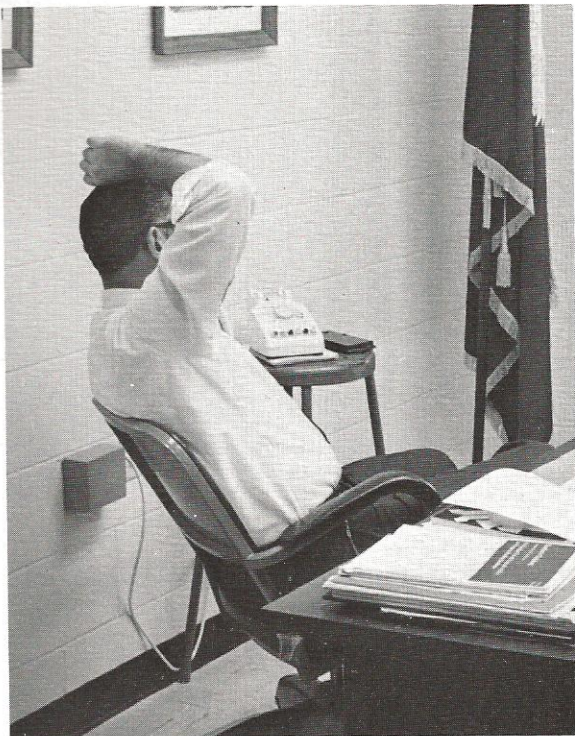

And then it was all over. Good-bye, see you next year!

To our friend, William H. Jones, Headmaster, we gratefully dedicate the 1973 Talon, in appreciation of his help, his interest, his quiet and unassuming leadership.

DEDICATION

MR. WILLIAM H. JONES

This was the first year of Junior Varsity Football at the Academy. Seven games were planned, but due to first year problems, many of them were cancelled. For many of the young men this was their first taste of football.

The season ended in an impressive home victory over Lake City 24-6. Many of the J.V. players will be a great help to next year's varsity.

We hope the 1973 Talon reflects the day-by-day life of the students at John C. We want it to be a diary that will keep alive these experiences we have shared. Perhaps ten years from now you may come upon some page, see something that reminds you, and say, "That's exactly the way it was!" We hope so.
