Emmie Haynes, Editor
Julie Robinson, Business Manager

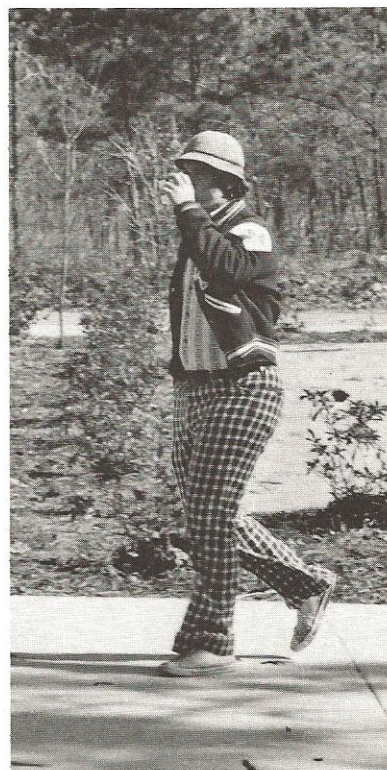

*To everything
there is a season,*

And a Time to every purpose under heaven;

*A time to be born, and a
time to fade
away,*

*A time to plant and
a time to pluck up
that which is planted*

Because she is always cheerful and smiling, sympathetic and helpful, patient and tireless . . .

Because she has always been an enthusiastic and faithful friend to the Academy and all its students . . .

Because we love her . . .

We fondly and gratefully dedicate the 1974 TALON to MRS. MILDRED GUESS.

Seniors

Lynn Hadwin - President
Cathy Crosby - Vice-President
Jim Gentry - Secretary-Treasurer

WALLY BALDWIN - stands head and shoulders above the rest of the class. Excellent athlete - when his teachers let him play!

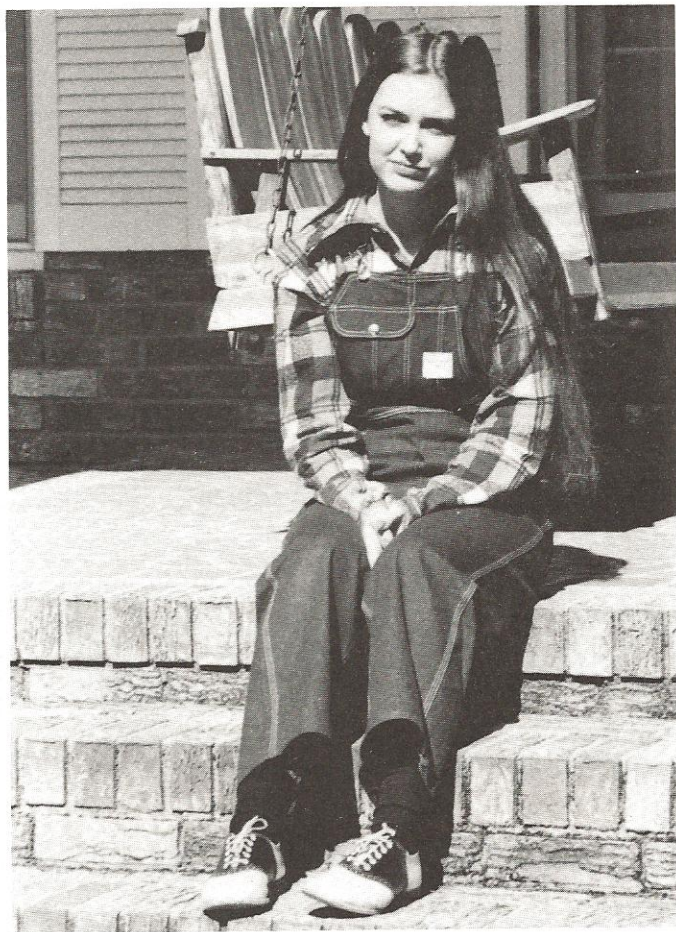

JIMMY BEACH - an old John C'er from way back. A real hunting freak. Next to hunting, he likes Chemistry best!

KIM BOATWRIGHT - the envy of all the class for escaping Physics. Has a special talent for knowing how not to get caught . . . How she got through four years at John C. without a single suspension, we'll never know . . .

SARA BOYNTON - the class comedienne. Says she's going to make her living singing commercials. She will probably be a hit - she certainly has been with Mr. Lohr! One of the wild Walgreen girls.

CHERYL CARSON - the flying fingers of John C. She tried the academy in the 9th grade, left for the 10th, and came back to us for the 11th. She tried, but she couldn't leave us.

CATHY CROSBY - she and Julie have taken turns being class beauty. Always takes great pleasure in helping others - and always does more than her share of their work.

DEAN COLLINS - tall, dark, and handsome! A great basketball player, and our one-on-one champion.

CRAIG DOPSON -
loves to take tests;
always has one question
though - "What are the answers?" A real mean lineman.

ERIC CULPEPPER - the invisible man!
Outstanding athlete. We all think we like him, but haven't seen enough of him to be sure.

SANDY FOWLER - a transplant from N. C. Has a way of looking like the cat that ate the canary!

JIM GENTRY - our scientific genius. Has a thing about guns. Co-editor of "The Warhawk" and a member of the National Honor Society. Also a nut.

REBA GODWIN - another veteran John C'er. A yearbook photographer for two year.

LYNN HADWIN - Laughing Lynn. A part of the Walgreen crew. Mention her name, you think of Millie the Car and Jack the Sack!

EMMIE HAYNES - another long term John C'er and also a member of the Walgreen crew. Has a special talent for getting out of any class. One of Mrs. Haynes' "favorite" English students.

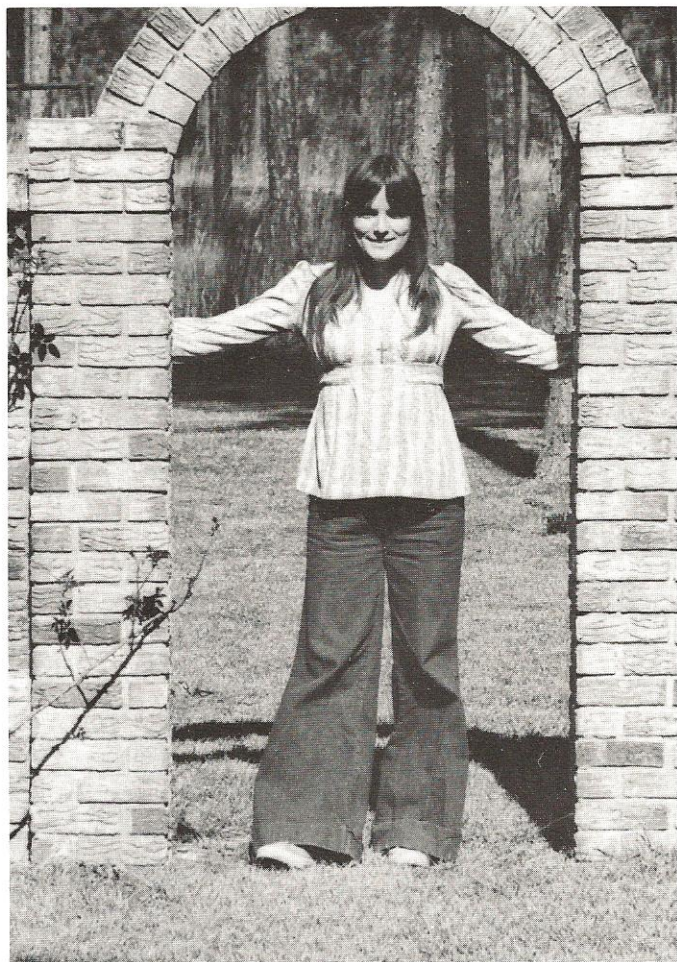

RONALD HAWKINS - alias Hawk. One of our Big Five senior football players. Drive the yellow mean machine.

BECKY JAMES - loves poetry, especially Rod McKuen's. Doesn't mind speaking her piece or doing her own thing.

KAREN MURDAUGH - "Tater" - Our only female athlete and John C's woman libber. The class artist.

JOHN PADGETT - drives the big, bad, blue truck. "Will you please tell John he's left his lights on?" The big snow man.

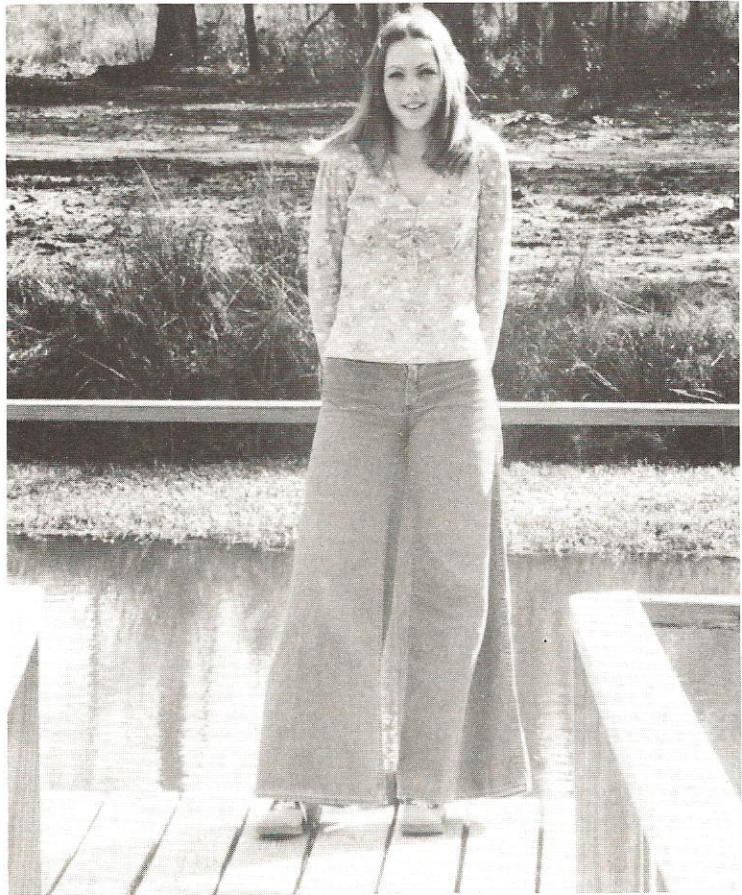

JACK RITTER - Critter - One of our many Carolina fans. President of Student Council. Has played baseball and football.

JULIE ROBINSON - Queenie, the Jewel. She is outstanding in so many ways we ought to hate her - but we don't. The original Walgreen's gal.

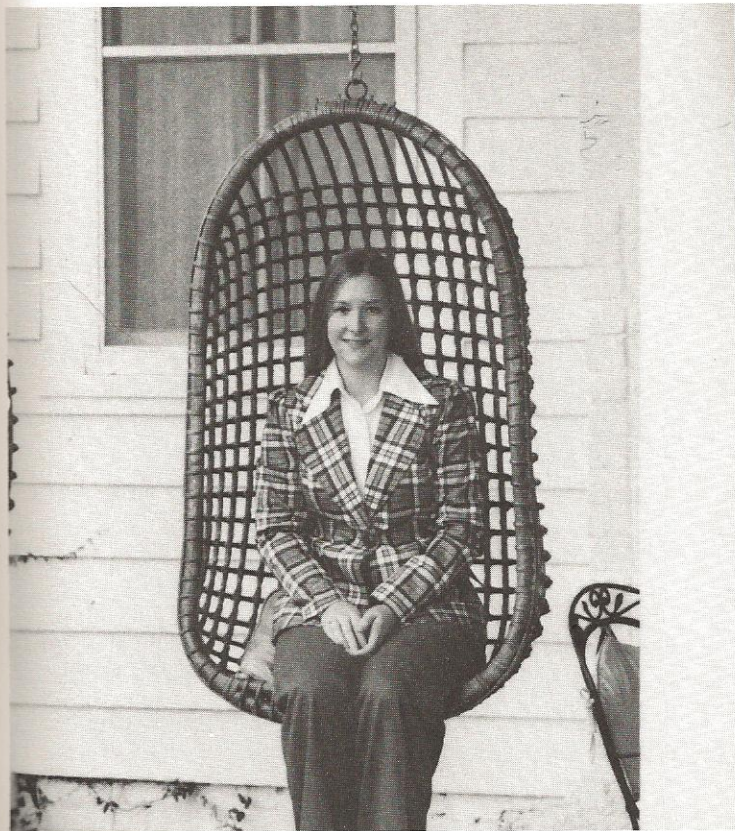

KAREN SEGARS - our veteran cheerleader. Drives the green van with the flower on the side. Everybody's "Sister."

NAT SMITH - really knows how to aim a gun! Another one of our senior football players and a co-captain of the team.

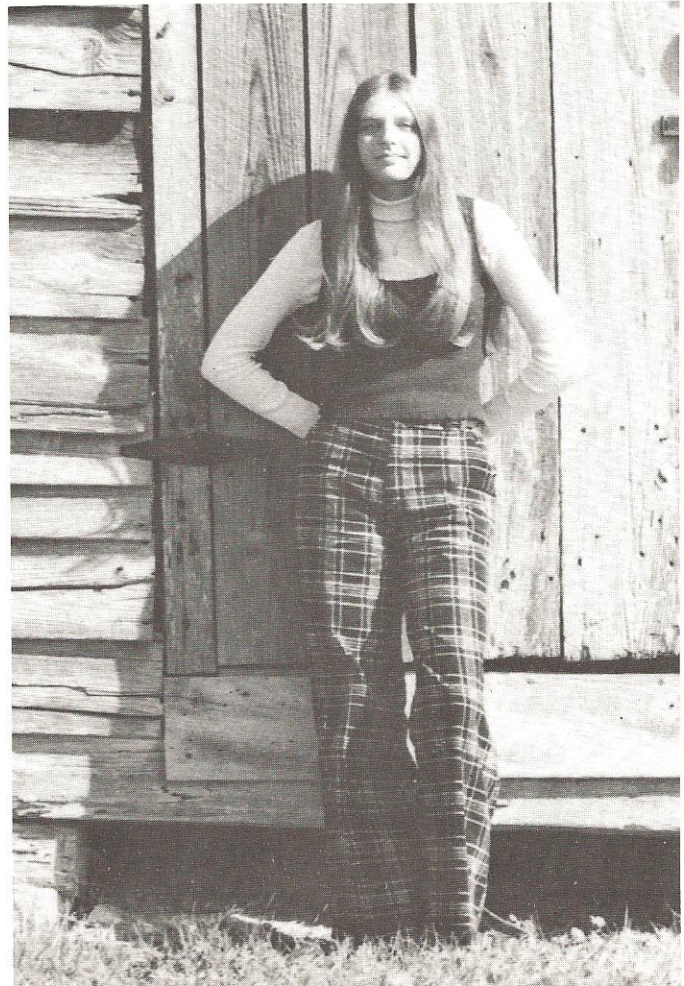

PAULA SIMMONS - our Miss DAR. Member of the National Honor Society and a yearbook staffer. One of our Clemson fans.

JANET WOODS - a tiny little thing. She has a hard time keeping quiet in Mr. McBride's room.

KIM WRIGHT - Kim and her VW - the terror of the roads around John C.

Homecoming 1973

The big pre-game pep rally has become a tradition at John C. The "beautiful" cheerleaders with their hairy legs, the "queen" candidates and the lovely Queen-For-A-Half-Day, the brawny players, the skits, the yells - all these have come to be expected and anticipated.

Rah! Rah! Rah!

The Team?

Bumpsy-daisy!

Candidates and Escorts

And more candidates, etc.

And THE QUEEN !

1973

The PTO sponsors a Christmas Bazaar each year. This is one of the big money-raising projects of the year, and requires much time and effort from many people. This year in addition to the sale of the traditional gift items, a dessert supper was served. There was a bicycle raffle, a cake walk, and fun and games for the younger set.

The Booster Club

Through the efforts of the Booster Club, our athletic field was built and the stadium erected. Theirs is a continuing dedication resulting in added benefits to the school and its athletic program.

Stadium Dedication

Early in the school year, the new stadium and athletic field were dedicated. This asset to the academy was the result of many months of determined and untiring labor, of continuing generosity to the school by The Booster Club.

Junior - Senior '73

This is the highlight of the last semester. It's what the juniors worked for all year long - selling candy, cakes, rummage, anything! Washing cars and serving at the canteen . . . anything to earn a dollar.

And then when the money is finally in hand, comes the challenge of changing a bare gymnasium into a Blue Hawaii or the Old South or An Evening in Paris.

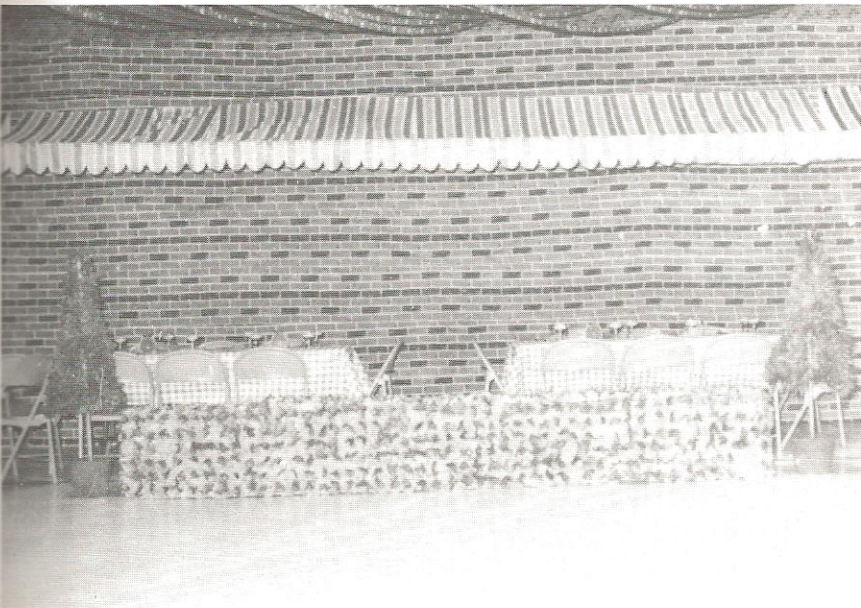

The Junior Class of 1973 decided that proms are fashioned from equal parts of crepe paper, staples, pepsis and sweat!

Some parents joined in the fun - and a few worked for weeks, faithfully, diligently, and cheerfully. They were good providers of cokes and cookies, too!

And wasn't it beautiful - this sidewalk scene? The star-studded sky, the checked tablecloths with the striped awnings, the street lamps! Tired juniors could relax and admire what they had done.

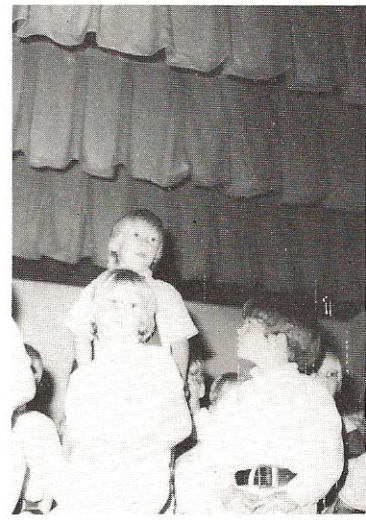

IT'S SPRINGTIME was presented by the kindergarten classes of Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Hiers at the close of the 1973 year. Two of the seniors, Phyllis Hiers and Terron White, assisted with the music and singing.

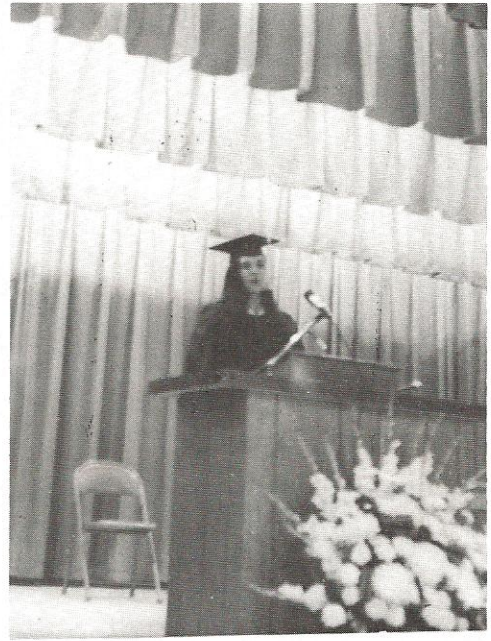

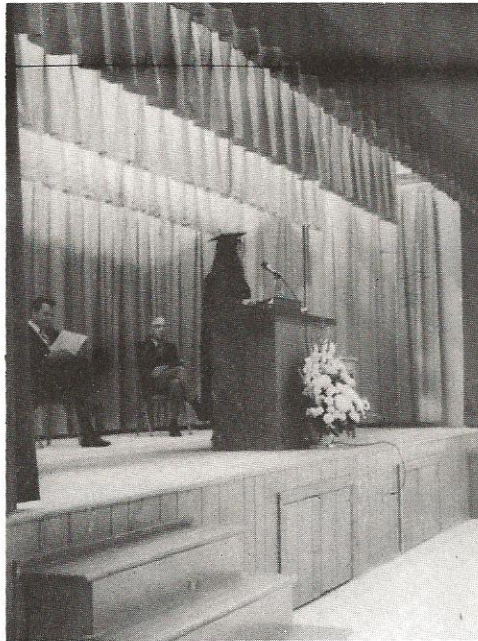

The kindergarten students sang old favorites - "Tiptoe Through the Tulips" and "I'm Looking Over a Four Leaf Clover" and others. The scene was an old fashioned garden. The children dressed to represent the different flowers and vegetables.

Graduation 1973

Graduation Exercises were held Monday evening, June 4, with Mr. Albert Watson, Former Congressman, addressing the twenty-six members of the Senior Class. Terron White made the Valedictory address and Shari Benton, the Salutatory. Mr. Jones, Headmaster, presented the class to Mr. Boris Hurlbutt, Chairman of the Board, who awarded the diplomas.

Awards Day 1973

A special Assembly is called each year in the final month to honor students who receive special recognition. Special scholastic honors were received by Shari Benton, Kay Bowers, Jim Gentry, Janet Greene, Robin Odum, John David Steedley, Mary Wynn Todd, and Terron White.

Coaches McBride, Covington, and Humphreys

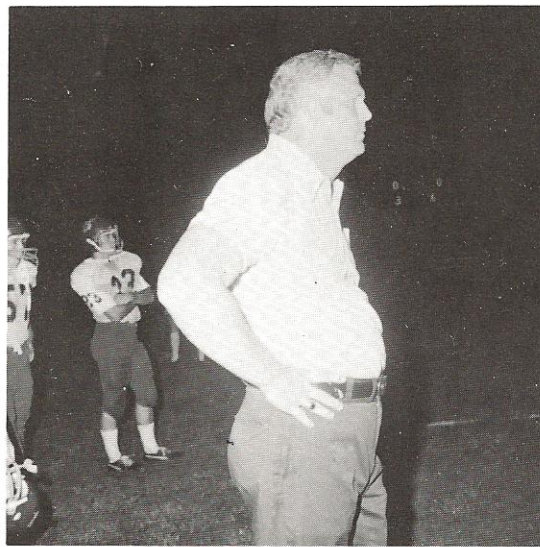

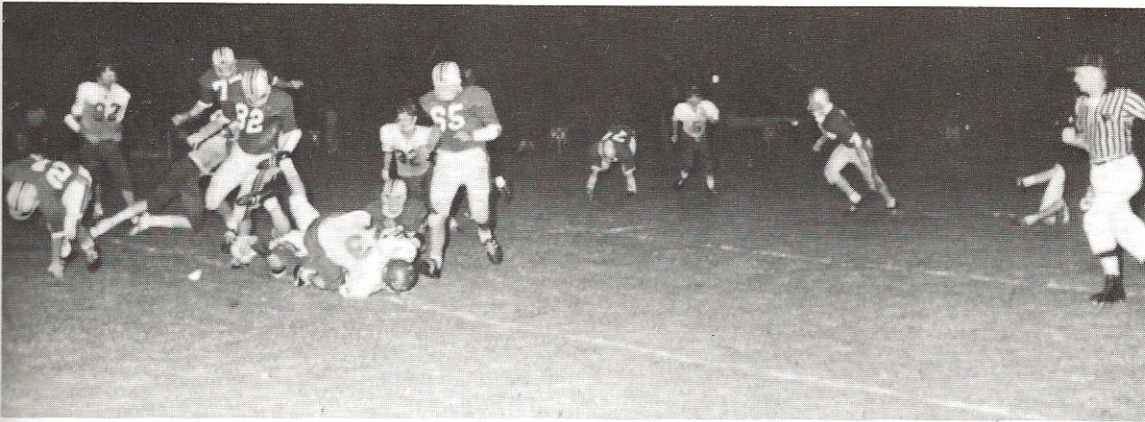

The season of 1973 was started in August with a new coaching staff and a new system of play for the Warhawks. Some early season setbacks and the lack of experienced players created more problems for the team than was necessary, and this was a big factor in a 4-6 season.
